

RELIEF AND AID SOCIETY APPEALS FOR USED CLOTHES

Used articles of clothing and household odds and ends for which you have no further use but hesitate to place in wasteful discard will be welcomed by the Winnetka Relief and Aid society, according to an appeal voiced this week by Miss Kate Dwyer, 858 Elm street, one of the leaders of the society.

Winnetka Relief and Aid takes care of home charity and requests that you turn over such garments and household effects to the society by advising Mrs. Laurence Stein, Phone Winnetka 170, who will attend to the delivery of the articles.

FIGHTS FOR SCHOOLS

C. W. Washburne, superintendent of Winnetka schools, spent Tuesday of this week in Springfield interviewing chairmen of committees on education in the house and senate, relative to proposed legislation for increased appropriations for educational purposes in the public schools of the state. Superintendent Washburne has been one of the outstanding leaders in the campaign to place the schools of Illinois on a more firm financial basis as the initial requisite to improved methods of instruction in the various districts in the state.

PICNIC FOR WOUNDED VETS

Winnetka and her Village Commons were selected as the logical setting for a spring picnic for wounded World war veterans housed in Chicago hospitals. The men were brought to the village Sunday in cars furnished by leading Chicago firms. The "feed" was the gift of Chicago hotels, and girls from "Tickle Me", a musical comedy playing at a Loop theater, were the hostesses and entertainers.

RECEIVE NEW MEMBERS

Sunday morning the Winnetka Congregational church expects to receive into its membership one of the largest groups ever coming together at a single service. Special interest is attached to the transfer of church membership on the part of the Rev. Paul R. Reynolds and Miss Charlotte Belknap who expect to go out from the church as foreign missionaries some time next summer.

RETURNS HOME

John Neiween of Elgin, Ill., returned to his home this week after having spent a month with his sister, Mrs. John Kiewik of 171 Church road.

MORE SPEED

The Winnetka Police department is the proud possessor of a high powered Cadillac motor car. This is a fair warning to all persons of miscreant stripe.

BACK FROM BUSINESS TRIP

William B. Kruse, 897 Spruce street, returned to Winnetka Tuesday from a business trip to Saginaw, Mich.

Social Happenings

The children of the public schools from Evanston to Lake Bluff have been making posters for use in the Arden Shore drive which starts next week. Big and little, from the senior class at New Trier, to the little tots in the primary grades they have been working to help raise money for the little mothers and sisters of Chicago's congested districts who need so badly the sunshine and fresh air at Arden Shore. These posters will be displayed in the different villages and it is hoped that a general exhibition can be arranged later.

The Publicity committee of the Arden Shore association wishes to thank all the teachers and the students for their interest and generous co-operation in the camp now.

There is a display of posters at Marshall Fields' this week, made by Mr. Babcock's class at the Art institute for the Arden Shore drive. The prize offered by Mr. John C. Slade of Evanston was won by Miss Marion Wallace of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mayer of Glencoe, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Irene Mayer, to Mr. Joseph L. Lewisohn of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Mayer and family are living at the Webster.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. William A. Thrall for a reception to be given in her home, 416 Elder lane, this afternoon, in honor of Miss Margaret Casey and Miss Edna Harry. The reception will take the form of a miscellaneous shower.

Mrs. William J. Lavery entertained at bridge at her home in Evanston, on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Charles Summers of Portland, Ore., who is spending several weeks as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Jones, in Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Peabody Butler, 777 Bryant avenue, returned on Monday from a visit in New York.

The marriage of Miss Catherine Orde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Markham B. Orde of Glencoe, to N. Landon Hoyt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt of Winnetka, took place last Saturday evening at the Glencoe Union church.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and Venetian lace, and a veil of tulle and point lace, and her bouquet was a lovely shower of lilies of the valley, sweet peas and orchids. Her sister, Miss D'Arcy Orde, who served as her maid of honor wore a frock of apple green taffeta and lace and carried a bouquet of Aaron Ward roses and blue larkspur. The other attendants, Miss Sallie Faxon of Kansas City, wore a frock of apple green taffeta and chiffon, Miss Margaret Orde, and Miss Josephine Hoyt, sisters of the bride and groom, wore pink taffeta, and Miss Dorothy Taylor and Miss Ruth Woodward wore taffeta frocks of a deeper shade of pink. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink sweet peas and larkspur.

Mr. William Hoyt served his brother as best man, and Messrs. David Nethercot, Stanley Clague, Walter Grould, Scott Fisher and Ralph Bollinger of Pittsburgh, acted as ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. The young couple left for New York that evening, and on Thursday they sailed for Europe on a three month's honeymoon trip.

An attractive home wedding is to be solemnized this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. Cain in Hubbard Woods, when their daughter, Jessie Forrester, will become the bride of Mr. Addison Burbank, son of Mrs. Blanche Burbank of San Francisco, Cal. Rev. Dr. Louis Perkins Cain of Edgewater will read the service at 4:30 o'clock.

Miss Cain will have as her attendants, Miss Eleanor Burbank, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, and little Frances Deming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Deming of Highland Park, and Ann Timson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Timson, also of Highland Park, as flower girls. Master Alfred Timson will act as ringbearer, and Mr. Charles Timson will attend Mr. Burbank as best man.

Among the out-of-town guests who will be in attendance are Dr. Jessie G. Forrester of Ocean Park, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. George Thorpe and Miss May Louise Thorpe of Sioux City, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. August Heuer of Holland, Mich., Miss Amelia Phillips of Fond du Lac, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Brodhay of Minneapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Strickler of Milwaukee.

Mr. Burbank and his bride will be at home after June 1 at 555 Forest avenue, Highland Park.

The Co-Operative society of America will hold a meeting at the Winnetka Woman's club on next Tuesday evening. Mr. Wheeler, one of the directors, will talk on the objects of the society. The meeting is open to the public.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. George C. Hughes, 1006 Central avenue, Wilmette, on Monday, May 2, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Iva G. Wooden of Chicago will speak on "Christian Citizenship."

The Suburban Neighborly club will hold its last dancing party of the season on Saturday evening, May 7, at the Winnetka Woman's club.
