

TEACHERS' SESSION SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Delegates To Lake Shore Division of Illinois State Teachers' Association Meet at Evanston

With what was said to be the biggest attendance in years, the Lake Shore division of the Illinois State Teachers' association, which convened in Evanston last Friday, closed its last session late in the afternoon at a general business meeting held in the First Methodist church. The quality of the speakers, the responsiveness of the delegates and the gratifying numbers who came to Evanston, making this one of the greatest conventions ever held by the association, were all a part of the day's successful program which lasted from early morning until late afternoon.

At the general morning session, several splendid addresses were made, one of the most important of which was that of Prof. O. Rugg of the Columbia university teachers' college.

Generation of Thinkers

He told of the responsibility which lay with the public schools in training a generation of men and women who could think intelligently, and discussed the more efficient methods by which the routine things (spelling, reading, writing, etc.) are now being taught. "Our big job is to train citizens who will think about their affairs and render critical judgement in politics, religion and industry," said Professor Rugg. He showed where the validity of some of the assumptions upon which a representative democracy have been based is now being questioned by thoughtful educators, one of which is that people have sufficient intelligence to organize their affairs efficiently without training. "We have learned in the past 50 years to question this assumption," he explained in bringing out the point that the every day man and woman do not carefully think about what they are going to do, but respond on impulse and not after proper deliberation.

He endeavored to show that the American public system is, in part responsible for this and, by discourse and illustration demonstrated where-in lay certain means of correcting the discrepancies. Upon great teachers depends the future of American thought, is his belief.

Other Excellent Speakers

Other speakers of the morning were Supt. W. W. Lewton, chairman of the legislative committee, who discussed school appropriations, state and local, and explained different bills which have been placed before the legislature in an effort to secure a greater state distributable fund. President Livingston C. Lord of the Eastern Illinois state normal school, took up educational subjects which should be included on the public school curricula and dwelt on the raising of our educational standards. Between the addresses musical numbers were presented by north shore talent, and the choice work of the A Capella choir was well received.

OPEN TENNIS SEASON

Tennis was formally ushered into the whirl of spring sports at New Trier High school this week when the annual handicap tournament was to be launched, provided the weather man eased up on the moisture sufficiently to permit the newly groomed courts to get into shape.

LAST KIPPY DANCE

Kippy orchestra, sponsors of the dance, sedate or "steppy," announce the closing dance of the season at the Winnetka Woman's club on Saturday evening, April 30. The final entertainment will be in the nature of a May Dance and Confetti party.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Glencoe, holds regular services Sunday mornings at 11 o'clock. Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock. Sunday school convenes at 10:00 a. m. The services are held in Masonic Hall, corner Vernon and Hazel Avenues.

The public is cordially invited to be present.
