

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MISS EMILY MATZ, daughter of Mrs. Rudolph Matz of Hubbard Woods, whose marriage to Mr. Darrel Sully Boyd, son of Mrs. George Boyd, will take place June 25, will be attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Matz, as maid of honor. Miss Elizabeth Favre of Indianapolis, Miss Margaret Clinch, Miss Rebecca Hickman, Miss Clara Hollis and Miss Louise Wood will attend as bridesmaids.

The ushers will be Mr. Frederick W. Copeland, Mr. Larned Greeley, Mr. Stuart Templeton, Mr. Thomas Bishop and Mr. Merrill Scott of Princeton, N. J.

The ceremony will be performed in the Winnetka Congregational church, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Boyd has taken a house in this village which he and his bride will occupy during the summer, and expect to move in the autumn into their own residence which is being built at Indian Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Dubia announce the marriage of their daughter, Avis, to Earl Parker Gowing, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Gowing of Winnetka, formerly of Wilmette. The service was very quietly celebrated on Thursday of this week at the home of the bride's parents, 1309 Astor street, Chicago.

Following a honeymoon trip the young couple will take possession of the senior Gowing's home in Winnetka for the summer during the absence of the latter on a tour of Europe.

Another delightful luncheon was given by the North Shore Catholic Woman's league, at the Moraine hotel, Highland Park, on Wednesday, May 11, marking the close of its seventh year. Covers were laid for one hundred. The decorations were simplicity and beauty combined, spring flowers in evidence everywhere. The program was announced by the retiring president, Mrs. Frank Jones of Highland Park, who in a most cordial and gracious manner, greeted guests and members on this festive occasion. She gave a summary of the years' work, placing particular emphasis on the Big Sisters' work. The Big Sisters' work was represented at the luncheon by its retiring president, Mrs. Casey of Chicago, and its president, Mrs. MacIntyre, also of Chicago. Both commended the league for its generosity and assistance. Mrs. Thayer of Highland Park, Mrs. W. P. Seng of Wilmette, and Mrs. William Sauer of Edgewater, presidents of neighboring clubs, also made short addresses.

The Rev. Father F. J. Haarth, and Rev. Father Smythe of Evanston, were at the speakers' table, who also contributed their little mite of humor.

During the past year we were favored by readings from Mrs. Dickinson, and vocal solos by Mrs. von Ammon, both of Winnetka, and who again kindly responded to our invitation which was highly appreciated. Thus, concluding the retiring president's mission, she humbly gave the gavel to Mrs. A. E. Tilroe, of Winnetka, the new president of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league, who graciously accepted the highly honored position at the same time exhorting cooperation, support and loyalty from its members, as given in the past. Just before closing, Mrs. F. L. Maloney, chairman of the luncheon, came forward with a gift in the nature of a club pin, for the retiring president, expressing the least appreciation for her wonderful work, and a beautiful bouquet of spring flowers for the new president, as evidence of the league's support, cooperation and loyalty.

The success of this annual luncheon is credited in full measure to Mrs. Maloney and her wonderful committee, Mrs. H. E. Mills of Highland Park, Mrs. John S. Cook of Wilmette, and Mrs. B. T. McGovern of Winnetka.

A cordial invitation is extended to attend the mass meeting to be held at the Auditorium, Chicago, this evening, under the auspices of the Chicago Teachers' Federation, when the subject of "The Crisis in School Legislation" is to be discussed from every angle. Among the speakers will be Peter Mortensen, superintendent of Chicago Public Schools; Senator William A. Spence, Senator Harold C. Kessinger; Mrs. William F. Young, President Illinois Council, Parent-Teacher association; Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber, chairman of the Education division of the State Federation of Woman's clubs; A. Olander, secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor; Charles H. Crysler, president of the Oak Park Board of Education, and also a member of the Illinois Manufacturer's association.

Bryn Mawr college will observe graduation day, Thursday, June 2. Among those whose daughters will be graduated, and who will go east to be present for the occasion, are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kales, and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Porter. Miss Elizabeth Kales and Miss Nancy Porter are members of the class.

As the opening gun in the Y. W. C. A. drive for operating funds, a dinner was held Monday night at the Drake hotel, Chicago, at which time the workers outlined their plan of attack. The campaign for $227,000 will be put under way Tuesday. Six hundred women will take the field for the cause in Chicago, forty-eight will be at work in Evanston and ten in Wilmette. It is specifically stated that a house-to-house canvass will not be made. Lists of former contributors to the Y. W. C. A. cause have been compiled and each person on this list will be approached personally and requested to aid again.

Those on the Wilmette committee are Miss Helen Shurtleff, captain, Miss Frances Scheidenhelm, Miss Mildred Spear, Miss Bernice Shurtleff, Miss Lucille Drake, Miss Ruth Risley, Miss Hazel Russell, Mrs. W. D. Hamilton, Mrs. Leland Pierson, and Miss Ruth Moulding.

The marriage of Miss Sigrid Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson of 1026 Oak street, to Mr. Anders Emil Neiglick of Chicago, took place on Wednesday evening, May 11. The service was read by the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard, in Christ church chapel and was followed by a wedding supper at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Neiglick left for Indianapolis, Ind., where they will make their home.

Mrs. Charles W. Lobdell gave a small tea yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Douglas Johnstone (Emily Virginia Smith) and Mrs. Gale Aiken of Winnetka, formerly of New Orleans. Mrs. Johnstone and her husband, Captain Johnstone, will leave next Wednesday for Boston and after a short visit there with friends will sail from Montreal for Captain Johnstone's home in England. They will remain abroad indefinitely.

An announcement of interest to many was made Wednesday in Cincinnati, when Mrs. Robert Bonner Bowler of Cincinnati and Bar Harbor, Me., announced the engagement of her daughter, Alice, to Harper Kelley of Shelbyville, Ill. The wedding will take place early in June in Cincinnati and Mr. Kelley and his bride will live in Winnetka, where they both have many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Knox Owsley arrived home Saturday from an all winter's stay in California and opened their house at 720 Prospect avenue. Their daughter, Mrs. Lon C. Hill and her little girl, Georgette, will come up from Texas next month to pass the summer with them, Mr. Hill to join them later in the summer. Paul Owsley will return in June from Princeton, where he is a junior.

Miss Priscilla Allen entertained the Young People's Bridge club on Wednesday evening. The club also celebrated with a birthday party for Miss Olive Bulley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bulley, who recently announced her engagement to Mr. Ward Starrett of Chicago, and whose marriage will take place on June 2.

Mrs. Samuel Hastings was hostess at a reception given at her home in Highland Park on Tuesday of last week in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Roland Hastings and the latter's mother, Mrs. Beebe of New York.

The MacDowell Musical club met on Monday, May 8, at the home of Mrs. Charles Byron, 768 Foxdale avenue. The assisting guest was Miss Clara Harsh, pianist. A MacDowell program was given.

The Wilmette Council of the Knights of Columbus were guests at an enjoyable banquet given at the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday evening. Mr. D. F. Kelly was toastmaster of the occasion.

The Oak Street Circle will meet Tuesday afternoon, next, with Mrs. Richard B. Webster, 466 Provident avenue.

Mrs. Edgar F. Alden, 352 Linden avenue, received word Wednesday of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Walter Scott Sargent of Washington, D. C., who was formerly connected with the navy.
