

Activities of North Shore Clubs

by Ruth Risley

There will be an informal Buffet-Supper Dance on Saturday evening of this week at the Indian Hill club. Reservations should be made by Friday evening at the club.

Plans are now in preparation for a delightful affair to be given on Decoration Day.

The usual Thursday evening dinner-dance took place at the North Shore Golf club this week.

pleted recently at the final meeting of the program committee. A thousand delegates from all parts of the state are expected.

"Service to the Community" is to be the theme for the three day conference. Special emphasis will be laid on this phase of club work. An open forum on "American Citizenship," with Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, a former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, as leader, will be one of the features of the program. She will also speak at the banquet on the opening night, at which Mrs. William H. Hart, state president, will preside.

At the "District President's evening," on May 25, Mrs. Edward S. Bailey, first vice president, will be toast-mistress.

Plans for the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held at the Drake hotel May 24 to 27, were completed on Saturday, April 30, the Dramatic committee of the Kenilworth club presented two one act plays, "The Twelve Pound Look," a comedy by James Barrie, and "The Pot Boiler," a satire by Alice Ferstenberg. The characters in the first play included Mr. Percy Eckhart, Mrs. Mark Cresap, Miss Isabel Lovedale, and Mr. Ogden Cook. The characters in the second play included Mr. P. B. Eckhart, Mr. Robert Dyar, Mr. Roy Jarrett, Mr. Ogden Cook, Miss Florence Pease, Mr. Clive Taylor, Mrs. Claude Burnham and Mr. Alexander Lovedale.

Each member of both casts played his or her character like a professional and the plays were voted easily the best ever presented by the committee.

The Bureau of Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross is sending out dietitians to women's clubs, church and community organizations to give talks and demonstrations in food work. The following topics have been quite extensively used: "Planning the meals at a Minimum Cost," "Feeding the Child of Pre-School Age," "A Wider use of Fruits and Vegetables," "Infant Feeding,"

"What our Food does for us," "Milk, the Indispensable Food," "Preparing the Invalid's Tray," "Diets for Special Diseases".

The North Shore Golf club gave one of a series of Thursday evening dinner dances this week at the clubhouse.

NORTH SHORE PIONEER DIES AT GLENCOE, AGED 92 YEARS

August Beinlich, Sr., 92, said to have been one of the first inhabitants of the north shore, was buried Monday, and his "best friend," George Dietrich, 93, too feeble to walk, was carried to the funeral.

Beinlich is survived by three sons and a daughter, twenty-nine grandchildren and twenty-six great-grandchildren. He died Saturday in his old home in Glencoe.

Services were held at the Sacred Heart church in Hubbard Woods. Beinlich settled in Glencoe as a farmer in the late '30's.

Dietrich cultivated a farm near that of Beinlich, who was a widower. His sons and his daughter are August Beinlich, Jr., Julius, both of Glencoe; Joseph Beinlich of Evanston, and Mrs. George Beck of Texas.

"Then you don't care for this futurist art?" "No, let the people of the future enjoy it."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

ESCAPES FLIRT—PINCHED

Miss Theresa Gross, 1100 Ridge avenue, Evanston, was fined $5 and costs in Magistrate Mickey's Wilmette Speeders' court Monday. Stopped on Sheridan road driving a car at the rate of 38 miles an hour Miss Gross insisted she had driven at a fast pace to escape the unwelcome attentions of a motorist-flirt.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN

Miss Winifred Bright, of Evanston, has been appointed assistant librarian at the Wilmette Free Public Library. Miss Bright began her duties May 1.

"Should a girl marry for love or money?" "Well, it's a question. You get fooled on both propositions."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
