Motorcyclist, Nabs
Four Bike Bandits

Four Chicago youths bent on pilfering a bicycle apiece from the "parking place" at the Central avenue school grounds, are telling it to the Juvenile authorities in Chicago because of some efficient and patient work on the part of one George Schaefer, Wilmette motorcycle policeman.

Schaefer noticed the quartet loitering near the school grounds at about 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Observing the miscreants from a point of vantage he waited until they were in the act of riding away on four perfectly good bicycles and then stepped into the situation with the heavy arm of the law. The youthful bandits wound up amidst hysterical sobbing at the Wilmette police headquarters. They gave names, ages and addresses as follows: Joe Kasper, 13, 1950 West Huron street; John Cardinell, 15, 1858 North Washtenaw avenue; John Tibito, 15, 1956 West Erie street; John Witcha, 13, 859 North Paulina street. The boys named two men living in their neighborhood as accomplices. Chicago police were notified to search for these men.

While few bicycle have been stolen in Wilmette in recent months it was thought the boys were responsible for many similar thefts in other north shore towns.
