

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

RAVINIA'S first Children's program which will be presented the North Shore Music Festival, assisted by Mr. Millo Picco, next Thursday afternoon, June 30, will include a concert given by one hundred members of the Children's Chorus of baritone, and the Chicago Symphony orchestra, Mr. Osbourne McConathy, conducting.

The Children's Chorus has sung at the festival since its beginning, thirteen years ago, and has become one of the regular features of festival week. At present the chorus consists of children from the schools of Evanston, Wilmette and Glencoe, and numbers approximately 1,500 of the children of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. A large number of choruses and cantatas have been sung during these festivals, all with the accompaniment of the complete orchestra and all in a manner which has made the Children's Concert well known not only to the patrons of the festival but to the country at large.

The children who will sing at Ravinia are selected from the intermediate schools of Evanston. This selection is made because it is the most practical way of grouping together a number of children who know the festival music.

The program this year proved to be unusually interesting. The Cantata by Webbe, "An Island Fable", deals with the story of a mouse and an elephant. Each was provoked at his size and envied the other. The kind fairy appears and changes the mouse to the size of the elephant and the elephant to the size of the mouse. At first they were delighted, but when they see the tremendous inconvenience to which they are placed their joy changes to mourning, and finally when they are in complete despair the good fairy appears again and restores them to their normal size. As in all the old time fairy tales the moral is sung, namely, that we should each be contented as we are and make the best of our own opportunities.

Four songs of eminent composers are sung with exquisite orchestra accompaniment and the program closes with the singing of patriotic songs, the audience joining in the "Star Spangled Banner".

The soloist of the performance, Mr. Millo Picco, is one of the celebrated baritones of the Metropolitan Opera company. He has appeared for a number of seasons at Ravinia and is a prime favorite with Ravinia audiences.

Another most attractive June wedding took place on Saturday evening last, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Conrad Braun, when their daughter, Marjorie, became the bride of Weldon Clark Dietrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dietrich, of Winnetka. Rev. George P. Magill of the Presbyterian church read the service at eight-thirty o'clock, which was preceded by a delightful baritone solo rendered by Mr. Jas. Sheehy of Chicago.

The bride wore a lovely gown of ivory charmeuse, made with a court train. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a ruching of lace and dulle and orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley and sweet peas.

Mrs. Gradwell Le Berthon Sears of Chicago, who served the bride as matron of honor wore an attractive frock of green georgette and silver; Miss Mary Fleig, who was maid of honor and Miss Edith Fleig, bridesmaid, wore frocks of apricot georgette and yellow respectively. All of the attendants carried large bouquets of sweet peas. Little Jane Fleig, in a dainty dress of white net, and Master Dick Hall, in a suit of white satin, attended as flower girl and ring bearer. Mr. Gladwell Sears served Mr. Dietrich as best man.

The home was artistically decorated with peonies, smilax, palms and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich are spending their honeymoon in Ohio, and upon their return within a fortnight or so, they will make their home temporarily with Mrs. Dietrich's parents.

On Friday evening of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Braun gave the bridal dinner in honor of their daughter at the Ouilmette Country club, and on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. David E. Hall entertained with a buffet supper at their home preceding the wedding.

The marriage of Miss Mary Geimer, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Michael N. Angelsburg of Evanston, and Henry Klauke, Jr., of Hubbard Woods, was solemnized at St. Nicholas church Wednesday morning, June 15, at 9 o'clock. Rev. P. L. Bierman read the ceremony assisted by Father Haart of Hubbard Woods and Father Diederich. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a full court train and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Didier attended the bride as maid of honor and Miss Cecelia Klauke, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in blue georgette and carried arm bouquets of columbia roses, delphinium and white daisies. Margaret Klauke was the flower girl and carried a leaves, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Lobdell of Chicago. On this occasion Mrs. Bush will read parts from her latest novel, "The Grinding", which is just off the press. Assisting Mrs. Aiken at the tea tables will be Mesdames C. Guerne Fellows of Chicago, and Mrs. Serrell Wood Beale of Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown McIlvaine of Hubbard Woods announce the engagement of their daughter, Priscilla, to Benjamin H. Brewster III, of Baltimore.

Miss McIlvaine is a graduate of Bryn Mawr. She and her mother are at the old family estate at Malvale, some fifty miles from Baltimore, for the season. Mr. McIlvaine joined them Saturday to remain over the Fourth.

The wedding will probably take place in the Fall.

Mrs. Preston Boyden is planning to join her sister, Miss Elizabeth Chase on a ranch in Wyoming, July 1. Mr. and Mrs. Boyden, who are living with Mr. Boyden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden, 725 Pine street, did not attend the Harvard commencement as they had planned.

Miss Eve Smedley, who has been the guest of Mrs. M. H. Lieber, for the past ten days, left on Thursday for Cleveland, Ohio, where she will spend the summer. Miss Smedley is an instructor at Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Iowa.

Mrs. George F. Suker, 1139 Oakley avenue, who is chairman of the committee in charge of refreshments for the Fourth of July celebration, will hold a meeting of her committee on next Wednesday afternoon at her home.

Mr. Sidney Spiegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Spiegel, 410 Sheridan road, will entertain with a dancing party at the Winnetka Woman's club on Tuesday evening of next week.

The Garden Club of Illinois met at Mrs. Herman B. Butler's residence yesterday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Inspection was made of her gardens and tea was served.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding of Miss Edna Harry, to Mr. Harold Cleveland, which was solemnized on Saturday morning last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber, 468 Ridge avenue, were Miss May Holmes of Dondee, Ill., Mr. Harold Royer of Abilene, Kansas, Miss Anna Casey of Aurora, Mrs. Samuel J. Harry and small son, William, of Moline, Ill., and Miss Josephine Druce of Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland left early this week to motor to Abilene, Kansas, where they will make their future home.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Royer, who are honeymooning on the Great Lakes this week. Mrs. Royer was formerly Miss Margaret Casey, and her marriage to Mr. Royer, was also an event of last Saturday morning.

Mrs. John Dillworth and two children of Detroit, Mich., are the guests of Mrs. Dillworth's mother, Mrs. Catherine E. Murphy, 990 Fig street.

Miss Myrtle Bothner of 916 Elm street and Miss Ida Martin of 671 Willow street, will spend the coming week with friends in De Kalb, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Morrow of Chicago, are occupying the McNeal residence at 925 Elm street, during Mrs. McNeal's absence from the village.

There will be a dinner-dance at Indian Hill Golf club on Monday evening, July 4.
