

Wilmette Happenings

Approximately forty people attended the third reunion of the Hiatt family, held at the Iloff and Mann residences on Greenwood avenue, on July 4. Most of the living descendants of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Hiatt were present with their families. Luncheon was served on the lawn, followed in the evening by a fireworks display. Stereoptican views of former reunions and family pictures were also shown.

Those present from the North Shore included: Dr. and Mrs. William A. Mann and family, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Iloff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Burge and family, all of Wilmette; Mr. and Mrs. George Iloff and family, of Kenilworth and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Iloff and family, of Rogers Park. Among the others present were: Rev. C. W. Hiatt and family, and Mr. Alfred Hiatt and family, all of Peoria; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cram, all of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Linneus Hiatt, of Wheaton; and Mr. Luther Hiatt and family, of Glen Ellyn.

Among the affairs which were given in honor of Miss Mildred McCullough, of Washington, D. C., who is the guest of Miss Ruth Moulding, 1004 Greenwood avenue, during the past week, were a luncheon on Wednesday of last week, given at the North Shore hotel, by Miss Eleanor Blake; and a luncheon on the day preceding at the home of Mrs. Charles N.
