IS IT A NEW ALARM CLOCK,
OR WHAT IS IT HE NEEDS ?

Commuters who habitually linger at the Adams' Pharmacy to chat while awaiting the morning train were disappointed and left out in the heat Friday morning when they found the place securely locked.

Subsequent investigation disclosed that Alva Lee Adams, the ever genial proprietor, whose turn it was to "open up", had glanced counterwise at the bedside alarm arrangement and arrived puffing an hour and a half late.

Mrs. Adams is visiting relatives in Dundee, Illinois.

ATTENTION TO HEALTH

Greater attention in the future to the importance in the village of the Department of Health is promised following a discussion of that branch of the village government at last Tuesday evening's Village Council meeting. Definite action to bring that department up to a standard commensurate with the needs of the village is expected at the next meeting of the council.
