

Glengables Tea Room Effectively Arranged

Redecorated Room Placed in Readiness to Serve Needs of North Shore; Attractive Eating Place

The attractive new tea room at Glengables, 576 Park avenue, Glencoe, is open and ready for use. The room formerly utilized as a school room in connection with the Glencoe Public schools, has been rededecorated and two small dressing rooms added for the comfort of automobilists and those coming directly from the trains.

"Extra windows in the south end of the room make it a delightfully cool and comfortable place to eat," the committee in charge reports. "The Glengables committee had expected to call for helpers in doing the painting of chairs and general furnishing of the room, but, through the very generous offer of Charles Watson, of Watson and Walton, interior decorators, not only was the work put through his shop at cost, but Mr. Watson gave to Glengables his time and service by designing the fixtures, hangings and general color scheme of the room, the result of which is very satisfying.

"The committee is most grateful to Mr. Watson, as it was spared many a weary day during the intense heat of the last week, and though this room may not be entirely satisfactory to him and up to his standard, because of the limited amount to be spent, the committee gratefully acknowledges his services and extends a very hearty thanks to him.

"A long felt want will be filled by the serving of Sunday suppers and efforts to make these especially attractive has been made. The hours are from 6 to 8 o'clock. All private parties are to be taken care of in the new room and persons desiring to make reservations are asked to telephone Glencoe 474."

HOME PAPER IN DEMAND BY THESE VACATIONISTS

"I can assure you our home paper will be appreciated very much," writes Mrs. H. D. Jenkins, 912 Elm street, in a letter this week to the Winnetka Weekly Talk from her present residence, The Brighton Apartment hotel in Washington, D. C. "Would you please send the paper," is her plea. "We would very much like to have it—any old issues will be much appreciated."

Other interesting news from Mrs. Jenkins includes the report of a visit to the White House, a three minute talk with Mrs. Harding, who is described as "very charming," and a visit aboard the Mayflower, the presidential yacht.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins later will visit at Ocean City and Atlantic City, as a part of their automobile tour of the east.

"EAT AND RUN"

The man who must "eat and run" to catch a train or get back at his post of duty is inclined to appreciate the new service offered by the Cameo Lunch Room in the Boal building on Lincoln avenue. For the accommodation of this character of patron Alexander Keller, proprietor, has installed a lunch counter. Breakfast, luncheon and dinner are to be served at—more cause for joy—popular, approximately pre-war, prices.

A 30c ad works wonders

¶ When the cave man wanted help or a wife he strode forth, tapped one on the head, and dragged he or she to the tribal habitat.

¶ Civilization has placed certain restrictions and limitations about us which prevent this beautifully simple method.

¶ But it has given us the want ad, which costs but a few cents, and no physical effort.

Going a Little Too Far.
Two small boys were quarreling over the possession of a toy bank when a noted local financier, who was passing, stopped and said to the younger: "Shame on you, my boy. Don't you want him to save his money?" "I don't care what he does with his money," replied the youth. "But he wants to save mine along with it."

Happy Ending.
"I have just heard of a woman who went to a hotel unaccompanied and discovered that the acoustic properties of her room were such that every time she spoke aloud there was an echo. She then made a bold attempt to get in a last word, and in so doing talked herself to death."—Petticoat Express and Advertiser.

Should Have Been Pinched.
Two London policemen, in order to obtain evidence against a club, played poker therein, but it was a piker's game. They lost only nine shillings between them.—Boston Transcript.

Not Unusual.
"The doctor said I must put down everything on the chart." "Well?" "The patient tries twice to kiss me. Must I put that down?" "I think not," said the kindly head nurse.
