

SEES GOVERNMENT AS EXPENSIVE LUXURY

Editor of North Shore Bulletin, Railroad Periodical, Expresses Confidence in Gen. Dawes' Undertaking

"Government these days is quite an expensive luxury," writes Luke Grant in the North Shore bulletin for July.

"According to the preliminary estimates made, it will require $60 from every man, woman and child in the United States to pay the expenses of the federal government for the coming year.

"And what gets our goat, to use the language of Milton," remarks Mr. Grant, "is that there are quite a lot of people clamoring for further extension of government control of industry, which can only result in increased taxes."

Citing the connection between increased taxes and extension of the functions of the government, Mr. Grant affirms that "Of course if we are going to insist that the government regulate this and that we must be prepared to pay the price of such regulation."

In another phase of his editorial, Mr. Grant makes the statement that "Two very hopeful events have taken place in the last month or two in the direction of greater economy and more efficiency in government. One is the adoption by congress of a national budget system, and the other is the appointment of Gen. Charles G. Dawes to put the budget system into effect."

Praising the advantages of the budget system and the confidence inspired by the appointment of Gen. Dawes, the writer goes on to say, "General Dawes, however, has a herculean job on his hands, for the Augean stables, he has undertaken to clean out have been accumulating a lot of dirt in the last generation or two. That he will do the job, if it is humanly possible to do it, is the confident belief of the nation," and of Mr. Grant.

WILL PAVE STREETS NAMED AFTER GOLD STAR HEROES

The Village Council at its last meeting passed an ordinance providing for the paving of Ely road and Starr road in the new Winnetka Heights subdivision. Each roadway will have a 19 foot concrete pavement.

The thoroughfares were named in honor of two of Winnetka's Gold Star heroes of the World war, Dinsmore Ely and Phillip Comfort Starr.

Reaches 84th Year; But Never Quit Work

William M. Hoyt, Pioneer Resident of Winnetka, Honored by Chicago Historical Society

William M. Hoyt, one of Winnetka's pioneer citizens who has maintained a summer residence at 550 Sheridan road for the past forty years, was accorded high honor by the Chicago Historical society on Tuesday, July 26, his eighty-fourth birthday, at the unveiling of a portrait of the veteran Chicago business man, painted by Marie G. Cameron.

Mr. Hoyt came to Chicago sixty-eight years ago from New Haven, Vt., his birthplace, and established the grocery firm of W. M. Hoyt and Co. His building occupied the site of old Fort Dearborn and was torn down in recent years to make way for the new Boulevard Link bridge. With the structure went the memorial tablet of the Fort Dearborn massacre which Mr. Hoyt is interested in having replaced at the northeast embrasure of the bridge at the exact spot where the building stood.

Mr. Hoyt's birthday was celebrated at a gathering of the family and friends at a dinner Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt recently celebrated their sixty-first wedding anniversary.

In a recent interview Mr. Hoyt stated that out of the sixty-eight years he has lived in Chicago, he has been in business for himself sixty-seven years. He was wearing a Realtor badge at the time of the interview and, pointing to it, stated that he had taken an active part in the recent National Real Estate convention in Chicago. He still maintains a real estate office at 41 East Ohio street.

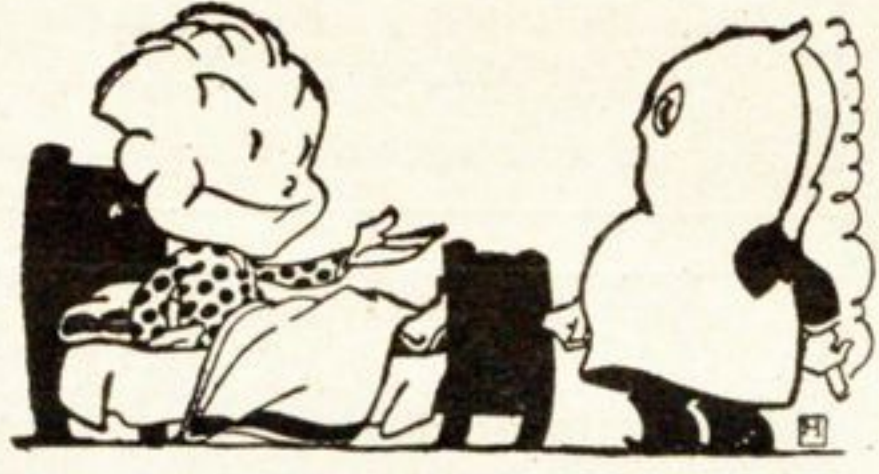

Mr. Hoyt laughingly declared he could beat anyone of his age playing golf, with the exception of John D. Rockefeller.

The Grand Old Man, as he is often characterized, is as vigorous and spry as the youngest, his eighty-four years of rightful activity having given him title to many, many more years of usefulness and honor.

WANT CINDER PATH

Persons who utilize the facilities for pleasure provided at the Skokie Playfield had their inning at the last meeting of the Village Council when a petition, signed by a large number of residents, was read asking that consideration be given to construction of a cinder pathway on the north side of Elm street from Glendale avenue to the Skokie Playfield, for the accomodation of pedestrians. The matter was referred to the Winnetka Park Board.

LAST MONTH, on a bet.
WITH THE boys up horn
I SPENT a night.
ALONE IN the old.
HAUNTED HOUSE.
AND WHEN I heard.
MOANS AND groans.
I SAID "The wind."
AND TRIED to sleep.
I HEARD rappings.
AND SAID "Rats."
AND ROLLED over.
THEN I heard steps.
AND IN the light.
OF A dying moon.
A WHITE spook rose.
I WASN'T scared—much.
BUT DIDN'T feel like.
STARTING ANYTHING.
BUT THEN I caught.
JUST A faint whiff.

OF A famil
AND DELICIOUS smell,
WHICH TIPPED me off,
SO I gave the ghost.
THE HORSE laugh,
AND SAID "Ed.
YOU FAT guys.
MAKE BUM ghosts.
BUT BEFORE you fade,
LEAVE WITH me one.
OF YOUR cigarettes.
THEY SATISFY."

THAT spicy, delicious aroma of fine tobaccos, both Turkish and Domestic, makes you almost hungry for the "satisfy-smoke." And there isn't a ghost of a chance you'll ever find its equal anywhere—for the Chesterfield blend is an exclusive blend. It can't be copied.
