

NEW LAWS ENACTED BY ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE

Summary of new laws enacted by Fifty-Second General Assembly. Prepared by Rep. Howard P. Castle, Seventh District.

Editor's note: Following is the first of a series of articles placing forth in condensed fashion the achievements of the Fifty-Second General Assembly of the Illinois State Legislature. It is to be expected these summaries will be of interest to every voter in this village. They will appear in successive issues over a period of nine weeks.

ROADS AND BRIDGES

Law amended so that any road within corporate limits of city of village having a population of 3500 or less now 2500 inhabitants may be improved with state aid to connect or complete by most direct route a State Aid Road, already constructed to the corporate limits of such city or village, of same width as that outside corporate limits. By agreement between Department of Public Works and City Council or Board of Trustees, street of greater width or different materials may be constructed through such city or village, provided it pays excess cost for such greater width or different material, and maintains street within corporate limits.

Interest on road bonds will bear interest hereafter which shall not exceed 6 per cent (now 5 per cent). Maximum limitation of bonds in former law omitted.

Appropriation of about four millions for purpose of refunding to counties the share of cost of hard surfaced roads constructed in whole or in part by such counties and accepted by state as part of state-wide system.

Authority granted Department of Public Works to appoint state highway patrol officers, having all the powers of peace officers so far as enforcement of Motor Vehicle Law is concerned.

Persons prohibited from camping on public highway at a point adjacent to or opposite school, church or cemetery, or within 100 yards of residence without consent of person controlling such school grounds, church or cemetery or residence. Penalty for violation $10.00 to $50.00. Duty of highway commissioner to enforce.

Provisions relating to appointment, expenses and duties of County Superintendent of Highways amended. Removes many employees from Civil Service.

System of state highways established and Department of Public Works given additional powers, including power to purchase machinery, quarries, gravel pits, etc. Department to erect standard guide posts and make regulations for all telegraph, steel pipe and other lines constructed upon the highways.

New section added to Motor Vehicle Law requiring additional license fees of operators of freight and passenger vehicles over improved roads outside municipalities, such fees varying with number of miles traveled and weights of vehicles and to be paid monthly to Secretary of State. Monies in Road Fund of State Treasury may be used for construction of hard roads along routes designated in State Bond Issue Road Act.

UNCLE SAM ON THE JOB CUTTING OUT BARBERRY

The Barberrry shrub must come out, is the order of the United States Department of Agriculture at present engaged in weeding out the destructive shrubs in this vicinity.

H. E. Brewbaker and W. H. Nuttall of the Department of Agriculture are on the job on the north shore making a survey of every property in this section of Cook County. They are at work this week pulling out the Barberrry on the district east of Sheridan Road, having recently completed the survey and eradication work in Lake County where more than 15,000 bushes were "pulled out." These workers will inspect every property in the village by order of the government, the law providing for the eradication of the shrub.

The ladies' golf tournament at the Skokie Playground will be played Friday morning at nine o'clock.

Miss Eleanor Hill, 220 Myrtle street, is spending several weeks at Kiwanis Nawaka camp, South Haven, Mich.

Miss Agnes Wilson of Madison, Wis., is the guest of Mrs. Arthur F. Sterrett, 265 Poplar street.
