

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

ACTIVITIES at the North Shore golf club this summer have included many interesting dinner, Evening Bridge affairs and dinner dances, as well as numerous luncheon and afternoon card parties. On Saturday evening of this week, a Dinner-Bridge will be given at the clubhouse, in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Barton. Other events, which make August a most attractive month, include, Cards, on Wednesday afternoon, August 3, a dinner on the following evening, and a dinner dance on the evening of Saturday, August 13.

Mr. D. W. Lester is chairman of the Entertainment committee at the club this year and is assisted by Mrs. Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Philip V. Bright, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Buckman, and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cawkwell.

Miss Mary Dennehy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dennehy of Hubbard Woods, has set September for her marriage to Hempstead Washburne, though the exact date is not to be announced for a few days.

It is to be a pretty affair, not alone as to appointments, but as to personnel, for the wedding party is to include Isabel Watkins, Katherine Rehm, Annette Washburne, sister of the groom-elect, and Dorothy Palms of Detroit.

The Vocational Society for Shut-ins which is continuing its work throughout the summer is planning a summer sale to be held at the Moraine Hotel in Highland Park, August 19. The directors and instructors, under the leadership of their president, Mrs. Frank Pebbles of Chicago, are spending all their time in helping the home workers complete articles which will be offered at the sale. Mrs. Hubbard Carpenter has given over the ground floor of her town house on North Michigan avenue which has been turned into a veritable paint shop and assembling room. The object of the society is to obtain suitable and remunerative employment for disabled persons who cannot go outside their homes. For that purpose a staff of trained workers is maintained, to discover and utilize any latent talent the shut-ins may have, thus assisting them to become useful and contented members of society. Handsome Italian linens, lamp shades in parchment and silk, bags of all kinds, serviceable wooden toys, dainty underwear and knit wear will be found at this sale at moderate prices.

Mr. Carlton W. Washburne, superintendent of schools in the village, is returning early next week from Columbus, Ohio, for the express purpose of delivering an address on Tuesday at the afternoon program to be held in the Auditorium on Municipal Pier in connection with the Pageant of Progress. On every other afternoon during the pageant, the programs are given under the direction of the State Federation of Woman's club, and on this particular occasion, the program is in charge of the Educational department of which Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber is chairman. Other speakers during the afternoon will be Prof. A. J. Benson, assistant superintendent of schools in Minneapolis; and Mrs. Theron Colton, state chairman of Conservation who will give a Nature Study talk. Mrs. Marx Oberndorfer, who is making the Ravinia programs such a success, has arranged some special music, to include a group of songs on Birds, Butterflies and Trees, by Miss Frieda Winegart, and an exhibition of the duet art piano by an experienced artist. Mr. Washburne's subject will be "Progress in Education." At present he is giving a course of lectures at the summer school at the state university at Columbus.

The wedding of Mrs. Alice Neeld Taylor, daughter of I. N. Neeld of Evanston and Roland T. Schwall of this village took place Thursday evening of last week, at 6:30 o'clock at the Evanston Hotel in the presence of a few intimate friends of the couple. Rev. Herman Meyer performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of grey canton crepe trimmed with navy blue ruffles and a hat of navy blue taffeta. She carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Schwall will be at home after the first of September at 411 Grove street, Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Prindiville of Willow street were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler at the Lake Geneva residence of Mr. Harry Gordon Selfridge. Mr. and Mrs. Prindiville and their daughters, the Misses Elizabeth and Mary Ellen, left Wednesday for Estes Park, Colo. Miss Prindiville will arrive home about September 1. Her parents and sister will not return until mid-September.

A letter received from Miss Daisy Hall, formerly of this village, who is visiting her family in Birmingham, England, state that she is having a most wonderful time after a five years' absence in the United States. Miss Hall is spending a fortnight in London, sightseeing with her father, before returning home about September 10. En route from Canada, Miss Hall will stop over in Niagara Falls, to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Arch Matchel, who have recently built a new home there.

Last Saturday evening members of the North Shore British-American club gave a most delightful surprise party at Community House in honor of Miss Doris Turvey and Mr. William Roberts, whose marriage occurred on Wednesday of this week, and Mr. and Mrs. William Thurland whose marriage took place a few short weeks ago. Both couples were presented with a chest of flat silver handsomely engraved in Old English.

The marriage of Miss Doris Turvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Turvey of 1114 Merrill street, Hubbard Woods, to Mr. William G.
