

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

AMONG the first Autumn brides along the north shore will be Miss Elizabeth Klotz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Klotz who has set Saturday, September 3, for her marriage to Robert Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bennett of Kenilworth. The nuptials will be read at 8 o'clock.

Miss Dorothy Klotz is to be her sister's maid of honor. Others in the bridal party include a trio of flower girls, Marguerite Watson, daughter of the Hathaway Watsons, Katherine Klotz and Mary Louise Dolan. Invitations will be out next week.

The bride-prospective is well known in golf circles and twice has won the city championship. She graduated from Smith College in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ostrom of 982 Elm street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel Beatrice, to David Stuart Jones of Oakland, Cal. Miss Ostrom was at one time a teacher in the Winnetka Public schools. Mr. Jones is in the automobile business in Oakland, where he is well known in automobile and club circles. The wedding will take place in California in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elmer Snyder of Lake Junaluska, N. C., formerly of the North Shore, announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Cecil Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hudson of Moweaqua, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson will live in Moweaqua. Mrs. Hudson formerly attended Girton school.

The Seventh Children's Afternoon at Ravinia Park, to be held Thursday, August 11, promises to be a most interesting affair. The following program has been arranged:

1. Interpretation by Mr. and Mrs. Marx Oberndorfer of the music numbers to be played by the orchestra this afternoon.
2. Chicago Symphony Orchestra.
March RakoczyBerlioz
AirBach
GavotteBach
Peer Gynt SuiteGrieg
Morning—"Aases Death"—Anitra's Dance—Hall of the Mountain Kings.

Intermission.
3. A Little While of "Lets Pretend" by Mr. Dugald Walker of New York, who is making his first appearance at Ravinia this season. Lord Dunsany has said: "Of all the materials for labor, dreams are the hardest; and the artificer in ideas is the chief of workers, who out of nothing will make a piece of work that may stop a child from crying or lead nations to higher things. For what is it to be a poet? Is it to see at a glance the glory of the world, to see beauty in all its forms and manifestations, to feel ugliness like a pain, to resent the wrongs of others as bitterly as one's own, to know nature as botanists know a flower, to be thought a fool, to hear at moments the clear voice of God."

Mr. Harold Hammond, of Evanston, formerly of Wilmette, and a student at New Trier high school, is leaving tomorrow for a month's outing in northern Michigan, first going to Traverse City, for a fortnight's stay, and later going on to Dewey Lake. The last week in August will be spent in taking an extended canoe trip.

Indian Hill Country club had a crowded week-end calendar. The first movie show of the season was put on, followed by dancing and golf events in the daytime. Among those who entertained at dinner parties were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blossom, Miss Ruth Matz and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Dobyn, Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Miller and Mrs. H. F. Penney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Case of Hubbard Woods, are leaving for new England where they will spend the rest of the summer. Their daughter, Carolyn, is spending July and August at a girls' camp at Conway in the White Mountains.

The young women student nurses of the Evanston hospital gave a carnival and lawn fete last evening on the premises of the hospital, 2650 Ridge avenue, for the purpose of raising funds to send two of their number to the Y. W. C. A. conference at Lake Geneva.

Mrs. W. H. Modes and daughter, Catherine of 916 Oak street have been in Indianapolis during the past two weeks and Mr. Modes left Saturday morning to join them. They will all return home about the middle of August.

A. SANTI
Candies, Cigars, Cigarettes
McBride Bros and Knoble Ice Cream
909 Linden Ave.
Hubbard Woods, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen T. Weinstock of 692 Ash street, returned this week from a month's visit in Marietta O. Accompanying them on their return was Miss Mabel Weinstock, Mr. Weinstock's sister, who will remain here during August.

"Camp at Home" Recreation school, which has been conducted under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Greeley closed on Wednesday, with an attractive demonstration in which the children participated, for the parents.

The directors of the Women's Western Golf association met informally yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hathaway Watson, president of the organization.

Mrs. Carrie Prouty, 559 Lincoln avenue, left recently for Griswold, Ludington, Mich., where she will remain until early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Wilson, and family, of 529 Sheridan road, left this week to join Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Spry at Osterville, Mass.

Mrs. Edwin S. Fetcher and family 822 Bryant avenue, are spending the remainder of the summer at Traverse City, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blossom of Private road, have as their guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Bacon of New York.

The marriage of Miss Ruth E. Olson, daughter of Mr. Elmer Olson of Maywood, to Mr. Charles Koeger of this village will take place today.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Brooks and family, 439 Walnut street, accompanied by Miss Jean Alton of 577 Cherry street, left Wednesday on a motor trip to Eagle River, Wis.

Miss Doris Gardner, who has been the houseguest of Miss Elizabeth Greeley, 655 Maple avenue, for several weeks, returned yesterday to her home in Boston.

Miss Louisa May Alcott Pratt, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Lowell Copeland, 180 Linden street, has returned to her home in Concord, N. H.

Miss Ruth Matz of Hubbard Woods left this week to spend the month in Portland, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. DeLay of 878 Oak street, are spending three weeks in Frankfort, Mich.

Dr. RALPH M. EVANS
Chiropodist
Village Theatre Building
WILMETTE, ILL.
Phone Wil. 2259
By Appointment

When You Eat Eggs

You want to be sure that they are fresh, and when poultry is served on your table you will want to know it is freshly killed.

All these things you can depend on in buying your supplies from us.

Fresh Spring Ducks	- 48c lb.
1921 Broilers	- - - 53c lb.
Frying Chickens	- 58c lb.
Stewing Chickens	- 38c lb.
Freshest Eggs	- - 49c dz.

SKOKIE

Egg and Poultry Co.
809 Oak St. Winnetka 852

Delicatessen
Open Sundays Until Noon

Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Greeley, 655 Maple avenue, left last evening for Mackinac Island, where they will visit the George Packard family.

Mrs. S. C. Hancock, 153 Bertling lane, left Sunday with a party of friends for an eleven day's trip through Yellowstone Park.

The certainty with which you can come here, knowing that whatever work you wish done well, is one of the principal reasons for our large business.

For your own sake phone your appointment as far ahead as possible.

MARINELLO

Formerly Delebeques
747 ELM STREET
PHONE WINNETKA 822

Dependable Merchandise

No matter what your needs are in hardware you will find the merchandise here.

And when you buy it here you can go out thoroughly satisfied that you have gotten the best goods obtainable for the money.

E. B. Taylor & Co. Hardware

546 Center St. Winnetka 998-9
WINNETKA, ILL.