

TAKES MOVIES OF CHILDREN AT BIG RAVINIA CARNIVAL

Motion pictures of north shore children who participated in the annual Carnival at Ravinia last Thursday were taken this year by S. Ella Wood Dean, 115 East Walton Place, Chicago, who makes a specialty of children's films, their games, dances and home life.

The films are expected to be shown in the various villages of the north shore in the near future.

HAYNES CARS IN PARADE

The "Haynes Gala Day" at the Chicago Pageant of Progress is scheduled for August 9, according to Triangle Motors, Inc., which is planning a great parade of Haynes cars on that day. Haynes car owners of the north shore are expected to be in the "line of march". A special dinner and unique entertainment at the Marigold Gardens is in store for the participants following the parade. The parade of 200 cars will go north on Sheridan road to Davis street, Evanston, west to Ridge avenue and south to the municipal pier. Davis street will see the show between 12 and 1 o'clock.

CHOOSE A NAME!
