WHEN MISS ELIZABETH PRINDIVILLE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Prindiville, becomes the bride of Robert S. Hotz, son of Mrs. Frederick T. Revell Jr., October 22, Miss Catherine Rehm, Miss Emma Wyckoff of Buffalo, and Miss Virginia Hood of Minneapolis. The bride's little sister, Mary Ellen, will be flower girl, and her little cousins, Peter Prindiville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. The wedding will take place at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, and will be followed by a reception at 5 o'clock. Mr. Hotz has taken an apartment at 1342 North Dearborn street, Chicago, where he and his bride will live.

An announcement of particular interest in North Shore and University circles is the engagement of Miss Ruth Moulding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Moulding, of Wilmette, to Mr. Robert E. Wooden, of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wooden of Centerville, Iowa. The announcement was made at an Alpha Phi "cozy", given at the Moulding home on last Saturday afternoon. Miss Moulding was a member of the class of 1917 at Northwestern and her fiance was a member of the class of 1913 at Northwestern, and is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Mrs. Virginia E. Noe of 989 Ash street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Virginia Pocahontas, to Mr. James Turner MacMurchy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. MacMurchy of Evanston.

The engagement is announced of Miss Jean Alton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Alton, 577 Cherry street, to Mr. Wellington Coolidge of Winnetka. The wedding will take place this winter.

On Tuesday, October 4, 1921, 8:30 P. M., at the residence of Mrs. Francis W. Parker, Jr., 656 Ardsley road, Winnetka, a musicale will be given for the benefit of the endowment fund of Simmons College, Boston, Mass.

The hostesses will be Mrs. Francis W. Parker, Jr., Mrs. Willoughby Wallin, and Mrs. Gayle Aiken.

The program will consist of violin selections by Mrs. Norman Parker, of Evanston, accompanied by Mrs. Everett Harris, and of vocal selections by Mrs. George E. Frazer, daughter of President Edmund James of the University of Illinois, accompanied by Mrs. William D. McAdams. Mrs. Norman Parker, who was Miss Natalie Patten, first studied violin under Lillian Shattuck of Boston, Mass., went to Berlin in 1910 with her sister, Miss Marjorie Patten, cellist, and studied there for four years, first under Willis Hess, in the Hoch Schule, later under Michael Press and Franz Wilcox, and with her sister studied ensemble under Anton Hopking. Mrs. Parker left Berlin just before the beginning of the war, and a Cremona violin, made by Storyeni in 1785, which she purchased at that time, was to have followed her. This violin has just recently been obtained from Germany.

The wedding of Miss Lucile Esther Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan C. Drake, to Ferdinand Leonard Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stephanson of the Olivet Methodist church, an uncle of the bride.

The bride, who will be given away by her father, will be attended by one of her sorority sisters, Miss Celeste Geherty, of Evanston, formerly of Winnetka, as maid of honor, and little Blanche Larson, a niece of the groom, will serve as flower girl. Mrs. Gevilla Colegrove Neukranz will play the wedding march, and Miss Edna Davison will render two groups of songs, preceding and following the service.

Mr. Fred Kusse of Chicago, who was with Mr. Larson a great deal of the time in France during the war, will attend the bridegroom as best man.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. Larson and his bride will make their home at 373 Oak street, Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

The second year was passed in relief and educational work among the children of Albania, under direction of the Junior Red Cross. How Completely Are You Protected?

The great increase in automobiles, with the even greater increase of loss by theft, etc., has caused insurance rates to go up and the degree of protection to go down.

Are you completely protected?

We offer policies with complete protection, and because we insure only the highest class of risks, our premiums are about 20% less than those ordinarily charged.

It will take but a minute to hear our complete story. It will save you a great deal of money.
