Coyne on Provident avenue, last Saturday when Miss Content Paterson's Bible class and alumnae of the old Presbyterian church, Chicago, were Mrs. Coyne's guests. Twenty-eight of the former members journeyed from many of the suburbs to enjoy their tenth annual meeting together. The delightful autumn day and Mrs. Coyne's charming hospitality, proved a source of great joy and inspiration to all.

Miss Ruth Montgomery, of Belfast, Ireland, a house guest of Mrs. Coyne's, whose father, the Rev. David Montgomery, is moderator of the Presbytery in Belfast, and who is here preaching at Moody church, gave the devotional address in which she portrayed the life of the Bible character, "Dorcas", very clearly and inspiring. One end of the long room was used as a stage and the members and their friends grouped on the other side of the footlights and enjoyed a most entertaining program. The Howard H. Hoyts report good fishing and hunting at Trout Lake, Wisconsin. Samples of fish and game sent to friends in Winnetka bear out the statement.

NEW TRIER BOOKS HEFTY SOCCER TEAMS THIS YEAR

New Trier High school's season Soccer football schedule was announced this week by coach John H. Paterson.

Beginning with a game at University High this Saturday the schedule, the hardest New Trier has ever attempted, reads as follows:

- October 8—New Trier at U. High.
- October 15—Oak Park at New Trier.
- October 22—Morton at New Trier.
- October 29—New Trier at Oak Park.
- November 9—New Trier at Morton.
- November 12—U. High at New Trier.

All games start at 10:30 a. m. With only three of last year's team back, the school will be represented by practical a new eleven, but the new material shows great promise, and Coach Paterson expects they will put up a stiff argument for the Shield. In practice games this season the boys have made a fine record, tying Lane Tech, last year's City Champions, defeating Carl Schurz, last year's runners-up, and easily defeating Tilden Tech.

The boys figure they have a good chance to take the honors this season and are working hard to improve their condition and team play. Last Saturday against Tilden they gave one of the best exhibitions of the game ever seen on the local field, and a repetition next Saturday at U. High will mean a good start towards the Championship. Probable line-up: Dunlap, Cullen, Batty, Fraser, Tubbs, Anderson, Capt. Cox, Kimball, Nelson, McKinney and Smith.
