

GREAT FUTURE IN STORE FOR PLAYERS

Visitor at Rehearsal Is Impressed by Dramatic Qualities of North Shore Players' Amateur Cast

Without a doubt the North Shore Players, that little band of celebrated amateurs who are so interested in the so-called Little Theater Movement, are creating more than a little enthusiasm and interest in the three one-act plays which are to be presented on Friday and Saturday evening of next week, at the Wilmette Woman's clubhouse.

Just the other day one of us happened to "listen in" on a conversation between the business manager, Jack Budinger, and the director, Elsworth Taylor, and discovered there was to be a rehearsal on Tuesday evening, and hied herself thither to look in on the players, and catch them in their activities.

The "Pot-Boilers", a satire by Alice Gerstenberg, a play within a play, the story of which centers about a certain Mr. Sud, a playwright, who is staging a dress rehearsal of his latest production, was in session. The cast is composed of a number of excellent players, Everett Fox of Winnetka, Elizabeth Duffy of Glencoe, a graduate of Cumnock School of Oratory, and who by the way is coaching the act, Harlan Ware, who needs no introduction to devotees of amateur theatricals, Del Worthington, Mary Rickson, both of whom appeared in last year's productions, Gordon Canning, and Jack Gibson. Each one was doing his very best to characterize his own particular part, and the rehearsal was moving along with exceptional smoothness.

Next came the participants in the comedy entitled "Where But In America?" Katherine Crush of Wilmette, has the lead in this playlet, which is in reality, but a satire on the housewife's life in America these days, where there are fussy maids to contend with, and cater to, in order to even keep one within the household.

Supporting Miss Crush is Everett Fox, and Constance Parks, both of whom show splendid ability in the money line. Many a housewife, and her husband, too, will fully appreciate this little "take-off" on every day life, for it is exceptionally well done.

John Drinkwater's tragedy, "The Storm", is the third dramatization, and though there was no rehearsal of it on this particular evening, inquiries revealed that the story centers around a lone woman, waiting anxiously for the return of her husband, whom she fears has been lost in the storm. Gloria Chandler, who is a graduate of Smith college, and a student of the Grace Hickox studio, takes the leading part and is supported by Joanne Golden, Phyllis Ogan, Ralph Bellamy, and Harlan Ware.

Every member of the cast is an artist, all have achieved distinction in amateur dramatic circles, and several have won renown in the ranks of professionals. Tickets are going fast, and it will be to your advantage to make your reservation early.

Mosquitoes Prevent Rice Production.

Although rice is the staple diet of the population of Ceylon, it is nearly all imported. Malarial mosquitoes breed so freely in the rice fields that laborers cannot work there.

NEW TRIER FOOTBALL MEN HOLD SCHURZ ELEVEN 0-0

New Trier's gridiron warriors battled the hefty Carl Schurz High school eleven to a scoreless tie, Saturday, on the north shore field.

The first half of the game was even, New Trier netting slight gains on exchange of punts.

The feature of the second half was Seibold's great catch of Bartleman's forward pass which gave the north shore lads a thirty yard gain.

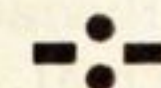

This Seibold fellow, who plays at right end, looks like one of the most promising men on the New Trier squad. This is his first year in interscholastic play. He was one of the principal factors in holding back the husky Schurz boys. Other "rookies" on the squad who loomed up as real football material were Carey, Murdock, Atwood, Ambler and Holloway. Leffingwell, the giant tackle, is said to have already earned a permanent job on the varsity. Rengal, at left end, looks like the real stuff, lacking only in experience.
