Fire Place Fixtures

We are headquarters for fire-place fixtures of every sort. This includes andirons, grates, screens, and sets consisting of tongs, shovel, poker and brush.

Nothing is more cheerful on these evenings — when it is a little too warm to start the furnace, and a little too cool to be entirely without heat — than a grate fire.

Prices on these goods are less than the price asked for the same fixtures in the loop. In fact you will find, throughout our store, that the marked price on the average article is lower than might be expected. Our large distribution is responsible for our being able to make things just a little more reasonable.
