

RS. Aagatha Haenel of Chicago, an artist pupil of Howard Wells, is giving a piano recital in Milwaukee, and will be under Mr. Neumann's management and appear in Chicago recitals in April. She is an artist of charm and intelligence. Mrs. Haenel will appear at Winnetka Woman's club at the first musical of the season, on October 20. Mrs. Burton H. Atwood of Winnetka will sing some charming songs illustrating the subject of the day's program.

This is the regular meeting of the club, and guests will be admitted upon payment of the usual guest fee.

The course in appreciation of music will be continued by the Music committee this year. A program will be presented each month, and the course is open to every member of the club. The programs have been arranged with the design of interesting the average music lover as well as the trained musician.

Mrs. Emory Cobb Andrews is chairman of the Music committee this year, and is assisted by Mesdames Harvey I. Brewer, Jerry Rothschild, Louis G. Schmid and Roland D. Whitman.

Wilmette Woman's club activities opened for the season on Wednesday aments". afternoon, when the first meeting of the club year was held at the clubhouse, with an excellent turn-out of the members. In the receiving line were Mrs. John C. Mannerud, Mrs. Joseph J. Siddall, Mrs. Theodore J Moreau, Mrs. Charles A. Eldridge and other officers of the club. Following a delightful greeting given by the president, Mrs. Mannerud, to the members, and numerous announcements made by the various department chairmen, the afternoon was turned over to three delightful artists, Margaret Conrad, violinist, Paul Mallory, tenor, and Preston Graves, pianist, who presented a program which proved most enjoyable.
