

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MR. and Mrs. Grant Ridgway of Kenilworth have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Harriette, to Mr. Samuel H. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Clark, of Wilmette, to take place on the evening of Saturday, October 29, in the Congregational church of Winnetka, at eight-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Leon T. Ellis will attend her sister as matron of honor, and the Misses Jane Ridgway, another sister, Louise Tinsman of Kansas City, Helen Ruth, Winifred Moore of Boston, Frances Tollerton of Chicago, and Mrs. Wendell Clark will be bridesmaids. Mr. Wendell Clark will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers will include Messrs. Leon T. Ellis, Emory Ellis, Gordon Clark, Joseph Dugan of Hinsdale, Robert Stolz of Dayton, Ohio, and Walter Nelson of Wilmette.

Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents in Kenilworth.

The Winnetka Woman's club has decided to buy a new piano. Hence plans for raising sufficient funds are being arranged, and the first of a group of benefit affairs will take the form of a card party to be given on Thursday afternoon, October 27, at the clubhouse, under the auspices of the Music committee, composed of Mrs. Emory C. Andrews, chairman; Mrs. Harvey I. Brewer, Mrs. Jerry Rothschild, Mrs. Louis G. Schmid and Mrs. Roland D. Whitman, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Dean, chairman of the Program committee, Mrs. Arthur Barrett, chairman of the Table committee, Mrs. John Nash Ott, chairman of the Refreshment committee. Mrs. Roland D. Whitman is in charge of the tickets.

It is hoped that a general interest will be shown in this enterprise.

Miss Beatrice Fenton will be formally presented to society at a tea to be given at the Webster, on Thursday, October 27, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Fenton of 818 Bryant avenue.

On Friday, November 4, Mrs. William T. Fenton is giving a tea dance at the Drake for her granddaughter, and on the evening of Tuesday, November 15, Mrs. Bowman C. Lingle of Chicago is giving a dinner dance at the Indian Hill Golf club for Miss Fenton.

Winnetka Music lovers are awaiting with much anticipation the opening musical of the season at the Winnetka Woman's club, which occurs on Thursday afternoon, October 20, when Miss Agathe Haenel of Chicago, an artist pupil of Howard Wells, will appear in a piano recital. Illustrating the day's program, Mrs. Burton H. Atwood will sing a group of charming songs.

This is the regular meeting of the club, and guests will be admitted upon payment of the regular guest fee. The following program will be presented:

- "National Types in Music"—Mrs. Emory Cobb Andrews.
- Piano—Miss Agathe Haenel.
- Voice—Mrs. Burton Atwood.

- Alabieff-Liszt—The Nightengale.
- McDowell—In Autumn.
- March Wind.

One of the largest and most fashionable society weddings of the fall was that of Miss Elizabeth Margaret Prindiville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Winslow Prindiville, to Mr. Robert S. Hotz, which took place on Saturday last, at four-thirty o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents. Miss Lila Hotz, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Catherine Rehm, Isabel Watkins, Virginia Hood of Minneapolis, and Emma Wyckoff of Buffalo. Little Miss Mary Ellen Prindiville, the bride's sister, served as flower girl.

The bride's gown was of white chiffon velvet. The lace which encircled the neck belonged to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. B. Clark. The tulle veil was edged with point lace that has been in Mrs. Haskell's family for many years. The bride carried madonna lillies. The bride's attendants wore larkspur blue georgette crepe gowns, trimmed with dark blue velvet. All wore dark blue velvet hats with shaded blue plumes, and they carried gladioli, larkspur and sweet peas.

Little Miss Prindiville wore a white lace frock and larkspur blue georgette hat. She carried a basket of garden flowers.

Mr. Hotz and his bride have gone east on their wedding and will live, after November 10, at 1342 North Dearborn street, Chicago.

The Art and Literature Committee of the Winnetka Woman's club announces that Mr. Georges Cauet has started his three classes for Beginners', Intermediate, and Advanced French. Beginners meet on Monday from 10:45 to 11:45 A. M.; intermediates, Thursday at 1:30 to 2:30; and advanced, Monday, 9:45 to 10:45 A. M.

At present an effort is being made to form a group for French conferences on Thursday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30. For further information inquire of Mrs. J. R. Fletcher, 948 Hubbard street, Hubbard Woods. Anyone interested in French is welcome at these classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard Casselberry have just returned from their wedding trip through Europe and are living in Mrs. William E. Casselberry's apartment, 1245 Astor street, Chicago, until their own is completed. They expect to be at home to their friends after October 20 at 1342 North Dearborn Parkway, Chicago. Mrs. Casselberry was formerly Miss Mary Elizabeth Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Leonard, 861 Bryant avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Reuter of Wilmette, announce the engagement of their two daughters, Miss Isabelle Elizabeth Wright to Mr. Harry B. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson of Los Angeles, Cal., and of Miss Eloise Wright to Mr. H. Leslie Hicks of St. Cloud, Minn. The marriage of Miss Isabelle Wright and Mr. Wilson will take place early in December.

The State Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is being held in the First M. E. Church in Springfield, Ill., this week, from October 10 to 15 inclusive. Mrs. L. C. Norton of 370 Walnut street, and Mrs. Isabel G. Moody of Wilmette are representing the local union. Mrs. Len Small received the delegates in the Governor's mansion on Wednesday.

Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber will give the address before a meeting of the Dundee Woman's club on next Tuesday evening, October 18. On the following Friday afternoon, she will give an address at the opening meeting and President's reception of the Neighborhood Civic club of Oak Park.

A group of women from the Winnetka Woman's club, namely, Mrs. Wallace W. Chickering, Mrs. George W. Gordon, Mrs. Alfred G. Freeman, the Misses Elizabeth and Martha Gemmell, and Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber attended the Vocational League luncheon at the Chicago Woman's club yesterday. Miss Anne Davis was the speaker of the afternoon.

The MacDowell Musical Club of Winnetka opened its present season with a delightful guest afternoon at the Winnetka Woman's club on Monday afternoon, October 10. Mrs. Burton Atwood, president of the club, and hostess of the afternoon, made a few introductory remarks of welcome and expressed gratitude to the assisting guests, Mrs. Gahlbeck, Mrs. Sievers, and Mr. Herbert Conover, for their kind participation.

The program was one of ensemble program and a large enthusiastic audience enjoyed the following numbers.

Price or Value

Price is the question of a moment—value, a proof of worth.

People who buy solely by the figures on the price ticket often pay dearly for the service rendered. People who consider value frequently find it cheaper in the end to pay slightly higher prices for a far greater amount of service received. Our prices are low when quality is considered.
