

ILLINOIS GRADS READY FOR HOME-COMING DAY

Many North Shore Residents Expected to Attend Festivities at State University on November 12

North shore Alumni of the University of Illinois are looking forward with keen interest to the annual homecoming at the state university, and scores of residents who are grads are expected to be at hand when Illinois and the powerful Maroons clash in the annual football classic.

The Illinois-Chicago football game will feature the 11th annual homecoming of 20,000 graduates to the University of Illinois at Champaign and Urbana, November 12. Homecoming is an annual celebration attended by alumni scattered all over the world. To accommodate the influx, equal in size to the ordinary population of Champaign, thousands of cots will be placed in rooming and fraternity houses and all railroads will carry special trains.

Suspend Classes

Classes will be suspended on the afternoon of November 11, although it seldom occurs, and the following morning the students will start to entertain the returning Illini. The freshmen and sophomores will stage their traditional class fight, the seniors dressed as hobos will march in parade, the R. O. T. C. brigade of the University, numbering 3,000 men, will be reviewed, the women students will hold a carnival for the "old boys" and Mask and Bauble, the student dramatic society, will present a play.

Besides the usual fraternity reunions, there will be re-unions by classes and by colleges, and smokers for each group. Each college of the university will give a luncheon to its alumni.

The merchants of both Champaign and Urbana are contributing to the fund necessary to swing the celebration.

Harding Issues Thanksgiving Proclamation

President Harding has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, November 24, as a day of Thanksgiving, devotion and prayer and urging the people to give thanks "for all that has been rendered unto them," and to pray for a continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation." The proclamation said:

"That season has come when, alike in pursuance of a devout people's time-honored custom and in grateful recognition of favoring national fortune, it is proper that the President should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for blessings bestowed and of prayer for guidance in modes of life that may deserve continuance of divine favor.

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all nations after a long period of struggle and turbulence.

"Ours has been a favored nation in the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The great trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for us to recognize that we have been thus favored, and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks, we will do well to pledge, in humility and all sincerity, our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence, as part of a plan whose wisdom we cannot question.

"Thus believing, we can do no less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for very great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our prayers be raised, for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterward; to all mankind in God's own justice."

"It's easy to be a great novelist nowadays; the last work is always the best." "Yes, it used to be that authors died, and their works lived; now the authors live and the works die."
