Grand Opera AT Chicago Auditorium Theatre

Opening Monday evening, November 14, the Chicago Opera Company inaugurated its eleventh and, from all portents, its greatest season. To the brilliant list of artists heretofore presented have been added new stars and principals of world renown. Indeed, so numerous are the celebrities that patrons at every performance are assured their complement of notable artists.

North Shore Line

North Shore Trains to Randolph and Wells. Transfer without extra charge, to South Side Elevated Train, getting off at Congress and Wabash—at the door of the Auditorium. Express Train, leaving Winnetka at 6:41 P. M. arrives at Chicago in ample time for evening performance.
