

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MISS KATHRYN GREENE will sing some of the charming ballads from "The Beggar's Opera" on Monday afternoon, December 12, at the last of the lectures of Miss Myra Reynolds, held at the Winnetka Woman's club. This feature, together with the slides which illustrate the opera, and Miss Reynold's charming manner of presentation will make the opera, as seen in this fashion, second only to witnessing the real production, and will prove a fitting climax to the fascinating talks Miss Reynolds has given. The hour is three o'clock. Further information may be had from Mrs. E. E. Brown, treasurer of the Drama Study class.

Winnetka citizens deem it a privilege to finance this most worthy enterprise. Subscriptions are coming in rapidly and in nearly every case the contribution is accompanied by a message indicating a warm desire on the part of the giver to help what seems to be a really important movement in furthering the progress of the blind. It is desired to raise an initial fund of $6,000 of which half has already been subscribed. Those wishing to enter their subscriptions, or to secure full information can do so by addressing Mr. Harry Moses, treasurer, at 480 Linden avenue, Winnetka.
