Miss Kathleen Air, assisted by Miss Hedglin and Mrs. Breyfogle of the Winnetka branch, Columbia School of Music, entertained their pupils at an interesting Christmas party and Beethoven program on last Monday afternoon. In opening the program Miss Mary Miller gave an interesting resume of the life of Beethoven, which was followed by various themes and variations written by this composer and rendered by the Misses Marion Alschuler, Ruth Weil, Emma Rummeler, Katherine Roach, Dorothy Reach, Frances Alschuler, Ruth Hamburger, Margaret Whipple, Mary Lutz, Elizabeth Sanford, Helen Younger, Hazel Cooley, Bernice Abrahamson, Margot Atkin, Helen MacMoran, Barbara Burlingham, Betty Horsman, Helen Bell, Laura Richards, Eleanor Sherman, Lucy Ruby, Dorothy Dickinson, Mary Marble, Jean Markley, Susan Burlingham and Virginia Wallace.

Miss Phyllis Ogan told a group of Christmas stories, and little Diantha Schmid played the accompaniment for her brother, David Schmid, when he rendered the Christmas Hymn, "Silent Night, Holy Night." Refreshments were served.

Local alumni are very much interested in the concert which is to be given on Friday evening, December 30, in the ballroom of the Blackstone hotel at eight-thirty o'clock, by the combined Musical Clubs of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, under the auspices of the Technology Club of Chicago. This is the first concert to be given by the Technology Musical Clubs in Chicago since the one given on their last western trip in January, 1917.

The patronesses for the concert are Mesdames Frank D. Chase, Frederick K. Copeland, Robert S. De Golyer, Samuel M. Felton, Louis A. Ferguson, Samuel D. Flood, Leonard S. Florshiem, John M. Frank, Morris L. Greeley, George Bayard Jones, Henry W. Kern, Clifford M. Leonard, Kenneth Lockett, William H. Merrill, Charles W. Pen Dell, Theodore Robinson, Richard E. Schmidt, Howard Van Doren Shaw, John L. Shortall, Meyer J. Sturm and Daniel A. Tomlinson.

Mrs. Justus Chancellor of 549 Oak street, will have as her guest over the holidays her brother, W. Grant Hellar, Jr. Mr. Hellar is in his freshman year at Yale.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Boddie are back at the Maryland Hotel, Pasadena, after a motor trip of two weeks. Their daughter, Judith, from the Bishop's school, La Jolla and son, John, who is attending the Harvard Military school, are with them for the holidays.

Dr. Alice Barlow-Brown has gone to Vienna to study for a month or two in one of the hospitals, before she starts back to the United States, after an absence of nearly two years. The doctor says conditions in Vienna are very deplorable, and that the rich and poor are both suffering terribly. The Americans are the only ones who find cheap living in Vienna. Dr. Brown will return to Serbia to complete her work there before sailing for America.

Mr. Edward Porter has returned from Morristown, N. J., where he is attending school, to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Porter, in Hubbard Woods. Miss Nancy Porter, who is teaching in a rural school at St. Ignatius, Montana, is not returning home for the holidays, and neither is her brother, Elliott Porter, a student at Harvard, who will spend Christmas with friends in Vermont.

The Suburban Neighborly club will entertain at the Winnetka Woman's club on New Year's Eve.

The next meeting of the North Shore Catholic Woman's League will be held on Thursday, January 5, at the Winnetka Woman's club.

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority will hold their formal dance at the Winnetka Woman's club on Saturday evening, January 7.

The Winnetka Young People's Club will give a masquerade party and dance at the Community House gymnasium on New Year's Eve.

Miss Louisa May Greeley, 655 Maple avenue, is leaving Sunday evening to spend ten days with friends in New York. Mr. Sidney Greeley, who is in business in Framingham, Mass., and Mr. Joseph May Greeley, who is a freshman at Harvard, are both remaining in the east for the holidays.

Mrs. Harry S. McLeod, 915 Elm street, left last week for Pass Christian, Miss., to spend several months. Mr. McLeod expects to join her later in the winter. Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Christopher of Chicago are occupying the McLeod home during their absence, and incidentally, waiting for the completion next May of their new home in Winnetka.

Miss Katherine Kay Strotz arrived Thursday from New York City to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Strotz of Winnetka, who are residing at the Webster hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Strotz have gone to Boston to spend Christmas with Mrs. Strotz's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Perkins.

On Wednesday evening, the North Shore Dancing party is giving an enjoyable affair at the Woman's club.

Mrs. Magdalena Baker, 549 Provident avenue, has returned home by motor from the east, where she attended the wedding of her son, J. Frank Baker, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Aiken, Jr., and children have returned from New Orleans; Mrs. Aiken and the children have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aiken, Sr.
