

NEW YEAR'S SERMON AT SUNDAY EVE. CLUB

Dr. George Craig Stewart of Evanston To Preach on the Timely Subject "The New Year and the New Yearning"

MISS SPAULDING, SOLOIST

Club Leaders Announce Attractive Programs For Second Half of the Season

Dr. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Evanston, and a well known platform speaker, will deliver the New Year's address before the Wilmette Sunday Evening club Sunday evening, January 1. His subject will be "The New Year and the New Yearning".

Dr. Stewart is well known to Sunday Evening club audiences, having several times appeared before the north shore club. He is a keen thinker of the progressive type and an orator of known ability. He accomplished a great work during the World War both as a speaker in behalf of war drives in this country and as a chaplain with the American forces in France.

The soloist next Sunday evening will be Miss Clara Belle Spalding contralto. Miss Spalding has traveled widely on concert tours both in quartet and solo work. The past season she appeared in recital on the largest Chautauqua circuit in the United States.

Last Sunday evening, in spite of the holiday, the main auditorium of the church and gallery was filled to hear the Philharmonic Quartet and Mrs. Ethel Benedict, soloist.

The program for the last half of the year includes some of the best known speakers and musical organizations in the country, also soloists. Among the speakers to be heard very soon will be Dr. Edward A. Steiner, Maude Ballington Booth, Jeannette Rankin, America's first Congresswoman, Lorado Taft, Dr. Charles A. Eaton, and others. The Association of Commerce Glee club of 50 voices, under the direction of Arthur Dunham, will present an entire musical evening on Sunday, January 15.

Remember Steve? Well He's Pet Of Winnetka

Eskimo Youth Stranded Here Two Weeks Ago Is Royally Entertained at Christmas Party

Steve Netuck can no longer be called "the stranger within our gates", for most everybody in the vicinity of the Elm street business section knows Steve a mile away. He's been doing odd jobs and has thus made the acquaintance of many business folk and householders.

Steve, it will be recalled, arrived in Winnetka two weeks ago in the midst of a terrific blizzard, and was deposited in the kindly shelter of the village lock-up. He wasn't arrested but simply given a place in which to regain his composure.

Our hero, who is a native Eskimo, globetrotter, ex-circus performer and former able-bodied seaman, proved a novelty, and police, firemen, public works officials and employes contributed to his comfort.

On Christmas Eve Steve was the center of interest at a big party in a Winnetka home. He told and retold many thrilling tales of adventure, deftly practiced a bit of legerdemain and generally entertained the assembled guests, in consideration of all of which he was literally showered with handsome and useful gifts.

Steve expects to make Winnetka his permanent residence. So would we!

The Christmas Spirit

'Tis not the gift that makes you glad, Nor what it may have cost. If you only think of values the Christmas Spirit's lost. It may be pearls or diamonds and yet your heart be sad.

But a simple Christmas card with a message from the heart Gives a thrill of satisfaction that money cannot buy. The gift is just a means by which a message we impart, But the valued thought it carries comes from God on high.

Throughout the year your daddy's toiled, With no thought of other pay Than the love that you can give him in honor of the day. No gift of silver, gold or pearls are half so dear to him As your words of gentle kindness from a heart that throbs within.

So forget about the presents, their beauty and their worth, And listen to the chatter of the children in their mirth. Don't compare the things you get with those you had in mind, And you'll reap a sense of joy of a more substantial kind. A. J. WOODCOCK, 934 Sheridan Rd., Wilmette, Ill.
