

Social Happenings in Winnetka & Hubbard Woods. by Ruth Risley

MR. and Mrs. Frederick C. De Lang, 555 Longwood avenue, Glencoe, announce the marriage on Christmas Eve of their daughter, Jessie, to Charles Anderson Saxby, 234 Maple Hill road, Glencoe. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father, Mrs. Anderson, the wedding was a very quiet one. The bride's sister, Ethel Serene, was maid of honor and Eva-May Mortimer was bridesmaid. Frank W. Saxby served his brother as best man.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Unis McDonald Wright to Mr. Glenn Dwight McMeekin on Thursday, December 29.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Bernice Rae Shurtleff, daughter of Mr. Wilford C. Shurtleff, of Wilmette, to Munroe Cole of that village.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Withington of Chicago announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice, to Mr. Kenneth G. Felt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Felt of 760 Foxdale avenue.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Schildgen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schildgen to Mr. Joseph H. Heinzen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heinzen, was solemnized on Tuesday morning of this week, at St. Joseph's church. Father Joseph Schildgen, an uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony at nine o'clock.

The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Rose Schildgen, as maid of honor, and Miss Gertrude Reinert, as bridesmaid, wore a charming gown of white satin and lace, made with a court train. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a cap of lace and held, surrounded by a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The attendants wore frocks of taffeta and tulle, trimmed with silver, and large picture hats of the same coloring, Miss Schildgen wearing a French blue, and Miss Reinert, a deep pink.

Mr. Leslie Bushonville of Chicago served Mr. Heinzen as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Joseph and Lawrence Schildgen.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents in Wilmette, for the immediate families and relatives, following the ceremony, and there was a reception in the late afternoon for friends of the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinzen are enjoying an extended honeymoon trip and upon their return will make their home temporarily with Mr. Heinzen's parents at 1466 Lake avenue, Wilmette, until their home on Lake avenue, is ready for occupancy.

In view of the widespread interest that has been aroused in regard to the coming session of the Constitutional convention and desiring that the clubwomen be intelligent on the important issues of the convention, an open forum will be held in the Gold Ballroom of the Congress hotel, Chicago, Tuesday, January 3, from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. The National Board of the General Federation of Women's clubs will be guests of honor. Topics under discussion will be, "History of Convention", "Educational Provisions", "Equitable Representation, (Cook county vs. Downstate)", "Taxation and Revenue (Federal and State)" and "Judiciary".

On the evening of this same day the Illinois State Federation Board is tendering a banquet to the members of the National Board at the Drake hotel, and on Wednesday, there will be an all-day meeting of the State board. Mrs. M. H. Lieber of our own Winnetka Woman's club, who is chairman of the Applied Education department of the State board, will be one of the north shore attendants.

On Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. William Cowper Boyden will be hosts at a reception in honor of Baroness Bistina of Poland. The Boydens became acquainted with the Baroness during their year abroad when Mr. Boyden was interested in the American Red Cross activities in Poland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Leonard and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Casselberry, will be "at home" on Monday, January 2, from four to seven o'clock, at the Leonard home "Wildacre".

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles H. McMillen at 1010 Linden avenue, Wilmette, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Tuesday afternoon last when their daughter, Norma, was united in marriage to John Shedd Prescott, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Prescott of Wilmette. The service was read at half past three o'clock by Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd of the Wilmette Congregational church, and was preceded by the singing of lovely songs by Miss Dorothy Watt, a sorority sister of the bride. Following the ceremony, a group of the Alpha Phi's rendered a number of their chapter songs.

The bridal gown was of velveteen, embellished blue chiffon over jade green satin, with a gold girdle and gold slippers and hosiery. The bridal bouquet was a sheaf of gold ophir roses. Mrs. Warren Fifer was her sister's only attendant. Mr. Chase Prescott served his brother as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott are stopping en route to their new home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for a honeymoon in Washington, D. C.

The Woman's Society of the Congregational church will meet on Wednesday, January 4. It will be known as Mothers' and Daughters' Day. A special program has been arranged. Beginning at ten o'clock in the morning, during the sewing hour, Mrs. Dwight Green will give a group of readings, and after luncheon, Miss Ellen Montgomery will talk on her recent experiences in Albania.

The regular monthly meeting of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league will be held on Thursday, January 5, at the Winnetka Woman's club. Reciprocity Day will be observed. The program promises to be one of unusual interest. Mr. Ray O. Wyland will address the meeting and Mrs. Edward Hines will speak on "Higher Education." Songs by the Chicago Folk Song Society will be of additional interest.

Among Americans returning home from Europe in the past few days were Mr. William P. Sidney of 739 Humboldt avenue and Mr. Howard P. Fenton of 818 Bryant avenue, who arrived at New York on Friday last on the White Star liner Adriatic from Southampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Decker of Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Adeline Margaret, to William B. Wiemers of St. Louis. The announcement was made at a Christmas dinner given at the home for friends and relatives.

Miss Decker is now a student at the University of Illinois and a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Mr. Wiemers is a senior at the University and a member of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Steen, 233 Essex road, left Christmas night for a ten days' visit in Washington, D. C. and other points in the east.
