

Kenilworth Happenings

THE wedding of Miss Madeleine Michelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Michelson of Chicago to Mr. Philip Brooks Maher, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Maher of Kenilworth, took place last Thursday afternoon.

The marriage service was read at four o'clock in the Church of the Redeemer, Rev. John Henry Hopkins officiating. Following the service there was a reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Michelson. Miss Beatrice Michelson was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Michelson, Miss Frances Heyworth, Miss Elizabeth Nitze, Miss Madeleine Childs, Miss Harriet Nichols and Miss Rosalind Wright. Little Miss Barbara Stanley was the flower girl. Mr. Frank Packard served Mr. Maher as best man.

The ushers were Mr. Jack Finlay, Mr. Howard Clements, Mr. Archibald Hooker, Mr. Walter Paepke, Mr. Warren Pease, Jr., and Mr. James Bulkley of Detroit.

The bride's gown was of white chiffon velvet made with court train and embroidered with brilliants. The tulle veil, edged with rose point lace, was held in place with a rose point lace coronet. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids, roses and gardenia. The maid of honor wore rose embroidered orchid chiffon velvet. The bridesmaids' gowns were of brocaded chiffon velvet, Miss Dorothy Michelson and Miss Heyworth wearing cornflower blue; Miss Nitze and Miss Childs, orchid; Miss Nichols and Miss Wright, rose. All carried Ward roses and lavender sweet peas. Little Miss Stanley wore a white lace frock over blue taffeta and carried a basket of French flowers.

BERGDOLL RIVAL CLAIMS HE IS "SUPER-SLACKER"

Jealous of the "honors" bestowed on Grover C. Bergdoll, a man describing himself as P. E. Saylor, Genesee, Idaho, is seeking official recognition of his self-imposed title of "super-slacker of the United States." He has written Gov. Hart, Washington, asking that his name be placed at the top of the slacker list.

By moving from city to city and changing his name, the man declares he laughed at the draft. By purchasing a soldier's discharge and war medals, he adds, he has enjoyed all the glory of an A. E. F. hero. "You ought to hear me tell the girls about the battles I was in," he writes. Federal agents and American Legion men of the West are searching for him, to bestow additional honors.
