

Activities of North Shore Clubs

by Ruth Risley

A NEW series of talks on "Good Citizenship" is to be launched by the Civic and Legislative department of the Woman's Club of Wilmette, on Wednesday, January 11, at 11 a. m. At that time, Mrs. M. H. Lieber of Winnetka, well known along the north shore for her interest in civic affairs, will be the speaker and will be heard at intervals during the next four months. The meeting will be open to all club members. Luncheon will follow next Wednesday's meeting, at one o'clock, and reservations must be sent to Mrs. T. J. Moreau, 1507 Walnut avenue, Wilmette, not later than Monday.

The afternoon program at two-thirty o'clock, is given in the interest of the Art and Literature department. Those who missed seeing Gilda Varesi's great success, "Enter Madame" may have the opportunity of hearing Mary Cattell in a dramatic interpretation of the play that has just closed a successful engagement at the Playhouse in Chicago. Mrs. Cattell is a favorite of the Women's clubs of our state and those who heard her a few years ago in Wilmette, will welcome her here again. The musical program will be given by John Rankel, baritone, who will be heard in several groups of songs.

The presidents of several Women's clubs will be guests at the afternoon program.

The regular meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club was held in the club parlors Thursday afternoon, December 9. Mrs. Willoughby Walling presided.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of the Art and Literature department and was in part an after-math of Christmas songs and stories. Mrs. P. B. Kohlsaas brought six children from her well trained chorus who sang two groups of songs. They were Hazel Cooley, Frances Anderson, Jean Smith, Kathryn Ranney, Mary Tibbals and John Olmstead. Their songs were rendered with sweetness and purity of tone and in the last group of Russian carols, two parts were taken with the obligato sung by Mrs. Kohlsaas.

Mrs. J. F. Porter read two stories. The first, one which Tolstoy wrote for the peasants entitled "Where Love is God is"; the other one, a children's story, "Christmas Every Day." These were thoroughly enjoyed. The program closed with the audience uniting most heartily in the singing of Christmas carols, and it was the expression of those present that this last program for the year of 1921 was one of the best.

Mrs. Charles D. Aspenwall and Mrs. Edwin R. Cole were hostesses at the tea tables.

The Board of Managers of the Winnetka Woman's club has arranged a class in Citizenship which will be conducted by Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber. It will meet at the clubhouse Tuesday mornings at ten o'clock, from January 10 to March 14 inclusive.

The class is open to the public and

The Catholic Woman's club of Wilmette held its annual Christmas tree party for the sons and daughters of its members last Friday afternoon at Brown's hall. The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Garfield Keck, who had arranged an excellent program of music, readings and dancing. At the conclusion, ice cream cones were served, and boxes of candy distributed to all of the guests. Mrs. Keck, assisted by Mrs. John D. Pahlman, are to be commended for the success of the affair.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. George C. Hughes, 1006 Central avenue, Wilmette, on Monday, January 9, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Landon of Chicago will be the speaker.
