Wilmette Club To Hear Homely Truths On Girl's Attire

WHETHER the eighth grade or high school Miss in your family think she should wear silk stockings and pumps or roll them down at the top in this kind of weather? Has she influenced Mother to permit her to wear abbreviated "undies" in winter, and summer furs when the mercury is above 90 degrees? Or is Mother trying to hold on to her old-fashioned and common-sense ideas and to rout the lip stick, rouge and powder from Daughter's vanity case, and to pay fewer doctor's bills?

The Woman's club of Wilmette is to hear homely truths on this score next Wednesday morning, January 25, at 11 a. m. from a woman authority. On that occasion Mrs. Lena Walters Frew, the attending nurse of New Trier High school, from her first-hand contact with the high school's dress problem, will discuss with the club mothers the health of their daughters as it is influenced by their dress and habits.

Miss Payton, instructor of English at the high school will talk on the social side of the life of the school girl. This program is under the auspices of the Child and Home department. All club members are welcome. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock, and members wishing reservations must advise Mrs. T. J. Moreau, 1507 Walnut avenue, by mail before Monday.

Reports will be read from delegates to the Legislative Forum held a fortnight ago at the Congress Hotel, and the Tenth District meeting held this week at the North End Woman's club in Chicago.

The musical program of the day will be furnished by members of the new musical club, called "The Wilmette Musical Society," organized about a year ago by Mrs. Dorothy Macauley. The club has an active and enthusiastic membership of twenty-two and numbers among its members, some of the best musical talent of the North Shore.

Following are the selections to be given:
Seguidilla Albantz
C. Minor Etude Chopin
Piano, Mrs. Erna Blythe Akely.

Air on the G. String Bach
La plus que Lente Debussy
Violin, Mrs. Dorothy Macauley
Idylle Faulkes
To a Wild Rose MacDowell
Viennese Popular Song Kreisler
Liebesfreud Kreisler
(Music arranged by Mrs. Macauley)
Violin Quartette, Mrs. Macauley,
Mrs. David Towne, Mrs. Stacey Bennett, Miss Elizabeth Hughes; piano, Mrs. Campbell.

"Our American Fiction" will be the subject discussed by Professor Franklin B. Snyder at the meeting of the Woman's Library club next Thursday afternoon. Augmenting the program will be a group of songs rendered by Mrs. Harry S. Moses, lyric soprano.

The monthly meeting of Woman's Catholic club, Wilmette will be held at the home of Mrs. Wendelin P. Seng, 401 Lake avenue on Friday, January 27, at two o'clock. The program will be in charge of the Philanthropy department, of which Mrs. Florenz Nolan is chairman. The speakers for the afternoon are Reverend Father Quille, whose subject will be "The Working Boys' Mission Trade School"; and Mrs. Alfred J. Benson, "Vocational Training for Shut-Ins." Mrs. M. K. Legler Junkin, rendered a group of soprano selections. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Frank Seng, and Mrs. James Byrnes.

The Federation of Woman's clubs of the Tenth Congressional District was entertained Monday by the North End club. A board meeting at 9:30 o'clock preceding the regular opening at ten o'clock. Mrs. W. H. Farrell, president of the hostess club gave an address of welcome, followed by a response from Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt of Glencoe, vice-president at large. Part of the morning was devoted to reports and business followed by addresses by Mrs. John T. Mason, Illinois Federation Woman's Club Director to the General Federation, and Mrs. W. K. Linn, President of the Board of Directors of the Park Ridge School for Girls.

After luncheon there was special music and an address by Zitkala-Sa (Gertrude Bonnin) on "Americanizing the First American."

Delta Gamma sorority members are arranging a series of small bridge parties in various of their homes, for the benefit of the house fund. The hostesses during the stason will include Mrs. Ross Stewart, Miss Dorothea Bull and Miss Gallagher of Wilmette, and Miss Marjorie Price, Miss Catharine Chandler, Miss Elizabeth Doane, and Miss Velma Staley of Evanston.

NEW TRIER JOINS NEW

New Trier has enlarged its field of activity toward the goal of a Greater New Trier in joining the new suburban debating league with Proviso, La-Grange, and J. Sterling Morton high schools. Each school will have two teams, each consisting of two members, who will have four debates during the contest. The negative will give two debates and the affirmative two. The contest will be held some time in March. The question decided upon is "Resolved: That the Policy of the Closed Shop in Industry is Justifiable." The tryouts for the members of the local team will be held at the regular meeting of the New Trier Debaters Tuesday, January 24, at 3:15.

1160 WILMETTE AVENUE
WILMETTE

Here is rare opportunity for girls up to "sweet sixteen!" KIDDIE NOOK is clearing out dozens of exquisite DRESSES at wholesale prices, or even below cost, following our policy to carry nothing over the season. These sales of exclusive apparel win many new friends, and KIDDIE NOOK is thereby well rewarded for any sacrifice in prices. Few dresses, if any, are carried alike. Those now in stock comprise the smartest styles and best qualities of SERGE, JERSEY, VELVET, SILK, also pretty WASH DRESSES of GINGHAM and other materials. To appreciate these bargains, of course, you must see them. Dresses formerly selling up to $10.00 are now $5.95; while those retailed at higher prices are correspondingly reduced.

While here, pick out your DECORATIONS for LINCOLN, WASHINGTON, ST. VALENTINE, ST. PATRICK, and other popular festive occasions.
