Parents' Day at Schools

Next Tuesday Afternoon

On Tuesday, January 31, there will be a meeting of all grades at the Greeley school. Parents are invited to come at 1:30 o'clock and visit the various grades until 2:30 o'clock. From 2:30 until 3 o'clock each teacher will be in her room to discuss her work and problems with the parents of the pupils.

At 3 o'clock there will be a joint meeting of all grades in the Assembly room when Mrs. Laura Young, president of the Illinois Council, Parent-Teacher association will speak, and Mrs. Von Ammon will sing.

The faculty of the public schools is planning to present some plays, followed by dancing, as has been the custom for several years.

Our Mistake, Masquerade's Booked For This Evening

Did you waltz over to Community House last Saturday evening, all masqued, and everything, and, then, discover that the annual Fireman's ball wasn't?

No, it wasn't a practical joke. Fact was, the ambitious newshound got his dates mixed and announced the dance for last Saturday evening, when in truth, it was scheduled for January 28.

That's this evening! No mistake about it this time. You are asked to be there, all masqued up an' everything, promptly at 8 o'clock. Kippy orchestra will provide the teasing syncopation.

Prizes will be awarded for the "best dressed lady," the "best dressed gent," and the "most comical couple."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack White left Thursday last for Pasadena, where they will be at the Maryland. Mrs. Charles Whitney, formerly Beatrice Lackner, is also at the Maryland.
