

NEW TRIER HI-Y CLUB IN FIRST BIG SESSION

Complete Organization, Elect Officers, Hear Talks

Ninety-seven north shore youths attended the first general meeting of the recently organized Hi-Y club of New Trier Township High school, in the school auditorium last Friday evening to effect complete and final organization. President Del Worthington, a delegate to the recent convention of Y. M. C. A. boys at Decatur, Ill., and leader in the movement to start a Hi-Y club at New Trier, presided at the meeting.

The Constitution and By-laws of the new organization were read and adopted, following which election of officers was completed with Tom King selected as vice president, and Russell Thompson as treasurer.

At the conclusion of the business session, F. M. Richardson, of Evanston a member of the Y. M. C. A. International committee, addressed the boys on the subject "If You Can See Red, You Can't see Straight." His talk was illustrated with accounts of his personal experiences in a recent trip through Europe.

Other speakers included Principal Eston V. Tubbs, of New Trier High school, and Leslie Dodds, of Winnetka.

Following the speaking program the boys repaired to the gymnasium at the request of Program committee chairman Tom Fitch, where two hours of games and sports were enjoyed.

EVEN NOW

Running through all my hours and days
On slim white sandaled feet,
Trailing a garment spun of dreams,
With gesture gently sweet,
One figure charms my weary sense
With rapture delicate—
The image of my old ideals,
And faith, inviolate.

'THE LITTLE MINISTER' FILM FOR NEXT FRIDAY

Betty Compson, the new Paramount star, will be seen to fine advantage in "The Little Minister," a splendid picture produced by Penrhyn Stanlaws, at the Community House next Friday night.

This capable star is charming as Laddy Babbie and she brings to the role the gypsy-like character which it demands. All who have read the novel by James M. Barrie, or seen the play in which Maude Adams scored so decisively several years ago, will be delighted with this picture.

Miss Compson is ably supported by George Hackathorne as Gavin, the little minister, and Nigel Barrie as the hateful Captain Halliwell. The entire cast is beyond criticism and the settings showing the Thrums village, the manse, kirk and so on, are admirable executed. Much credit is due the producer, Penrhyn Stanlaws, for a well sustained and artistically presented screen version of this famous story.

There will be three shows, a matinee at 4 o'clock and two evening shows at 7:15 and 9 o'clock.

Parent-Teacher Activities

The Parent-Teacher association of Greeley school held a large and interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon of this week. The parents visited the different grades following which they held conferences with the teachers. At 3 o'clock the group enjoyed a brief program in the Kindergarten rooms when Mrs. Von Ammon presented several vocal numbers and Mr. Washburne outlined briefly the course in reading now being followed in the schools. Mr. Power of Columbus, O., delivered an interesting lecture on James Whitcomb Riley. A social hour followed the program.
