

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES - ITEMS OF PERSONAL MENTION

Carolyn Wilson Back From Orient To Talk of Problems

MISS CAROLYN WILSON, a graduate of Wellesley college, and a former Tribune correspondent in Chicago and abroad, is to be the speaker at the meeting to be held in the Glencoe Union Church next Friday evening, February 10, under the auspices of the Glencoe Men's club. Since Miss Wilson's return from Paris, she has been touring the Orient, making a special study of economic and social conditions. Three weeks ago she arrived in San Francisco, and since then has been delivering a number of lectures on "The Asiatic Problem" before various of the Business Men's clubs. Through the recommendation of Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, who has heard Miss Wilson speak, she was persuaded to give her lecture on "Japanese and Chinese Commerce in Relation to American Industries" in Glencoe next week.

At this time, Miss Wilson will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. de Beers, 814 Grove street.

Another attractive program will be offered by the Drama Study class of the Winnetka Woman's club, Monday, February 6, at three o'clock. Mr. Dudley Digges and Miss Laura Hope Crews, now playing "Mr. Pim Passes By," will address the club, and a tea and reception will be given them after the meeting. Mrs. Jerome Frank will have charge of the program. There will be a business meeting at 2:30 p. m. at which a full attendance is desired. The meeting is open to all club members. Non-Members will be admitted upon payment of the usual guest fee.

The Woman's Guild and Auxiliary of Christ church will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, February 6. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 by the members of Zone Six, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank E. Plowman. The speaker of the day will be Mrs. Herman Butler. There is a great deal of work on hand to be taken care of, and a good attendance is desired.

N. T. GIRLS DISPLAY OWN-MADE GARMENTS

Girls in the Home Economics department at New Trier presented an interesting exhibit of the products of their skill in the department rooms on Friday of last week. Girls in the Food classes served punch and wafers to the visitors.

In the exhibit were a dozen hats made by the senior classes in millinery. The advanced sewing classes did work with woolen and silk materials, making dresses and blouses. Those in the elementary groups furnished wash dresses, aprons, undergarments and attractive smocks for the exhibit. More than 100 garments were on display.

Teachers in charge, the Misses Van Horn, Bertram and Moschel, plan to give similar exhibits at the close of each semester. They expressed themselves as well pleased with the attendance at the initial exhibit.

During the coming semester the department is offering Beginners' classes in elementary sewing and elementary cooking.
