

ADDITIONAL TREAT AT CABARET BALL

Ray Blick's Vagabonds Donate Their Services

Continuous music will be the unexpected feature of the Cabaret Ball next Friday, since Mr. Blick, leader of the famous "Vagabonds," the five-piece orchestra that is so well known in Evanston and Chicago, agreed to donate the services of himself and his band.

This is the "Classical Jazz" orchestra that recently met all comers in Evanston at Redfield Hall, and the same one that every frequenter of the territory known as "the road" is familiar with. In the contest issuing out of their challenge in Evanston, they met and defeated four of Evanston's best known orchestras.

Mr. Blick, the leader and pianist, and Mr. Bigelow, the violinist, are both well known in Winnetka, both being members of the staff of the Winnetka Talk.

With the addition of this band, there will be continuous dancing. When the Alco boys stop the "Vagabonds" will start. Be sure and be there to hear them.

LIST OF "NOTABLES"
Among the well known men who have signed up with the American Legion in New York for 1922 are Jack London, Andrew Carnegie, George Washington, John Philip Sousa, A. J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., Frederick Wilhelm, A. Kaiser, Rupert Hughes, and King Albert of Belgium.

AND THEY DID
"Move the house and you can have it." With this injunction, the Carbondale, Pa., post of the American Legion rolled up its sleeves and became possessed of a large, commodious mansion for its clubhouse.

CHINESE HUNT THEIR SLACKERS
Chinese ex-soldiers of the American Legion in New York City are to be employed in rounding up 50 slackers of their race, supposed to be in hiding in Chinatown. The men qualified on their knowledge of the quarter's many literal "ins and outs."
