Young Marrieds Revel Tonight At Wynnecliffe

A SCORE of young married couples in the village are having a series of subscription dances in private homes, most informal and jolly affairs with buffet suppers served at the midnight hour. The third and last of the series will be given this evening at "Wynnecliffe" the home of Mrs. Rudolph Matz in Hubbard Woods.

Among the participants are Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tuttle, the Preston Boydens, and Kent Chandlers, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Scriven, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Cable, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harris, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. Griscom Bettie, Mr. and Mrs. Dell R. Boyd, Miss Ruth Matz and Mrs. Morris Wilson.

A signal honor has been accorded the North Shore Theater Guild in being invited by the Drama League of Chicago to repeat its performance of Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion," which was given with such unqualified success in the North Shore town in January. Accordingly it will be given at the Blackstone theater on the afternoon of Tuesday, March 7. Tickets may now be secured at the box office.

The Theater Guild regrets that owing to the crowded house Friday night in Winnetka, some of the members were unable to be admitted. Arrangements are being made by the Board by which those persons may witness the performance at the Blackstone without charge.

The next performance of the Guild is scheduled for the latter part of March, when "Mixed Marriage," a serious play by St. John Ervine, will be given in conjunction with a comedy curtain-raiser.

Some confusion has arisen as to the identity of the "North Shore Theater Guild," and "North Shore Players." The names are readily confused, but the organizations are separate and distinct, each with its own worthy cause and ideals.

A capacity house at the Winnetka Woman's club on Tuesday evening assured the teachers of the Winnetka Public schools that the parents of the village are interested and behind them in all of their activities. The evening has been voted a success from every standpoint, and the proceeds, the amount of which is still unknown, will be turned over to the teachers to buy something permanent for the schools.

Both of the plays "Everybody's Husband," and "Uncle Jimmy" were well produced, and caused much merriment in the audience. A great deal of credit belongs to Mrs. Laird Bell, whose untiring efforts in coaching and training, made such an excellent production possible.

A surprisingly large number of folks stayed to enjoy the collation with its many interesting features and favors, led by Mr. N. H. Blatchford, Jr., and Mr. John Reilly. The third annual Parent-Teacher's frolic has been called the most successful and enjoyable one of all.

A series of Five Informal Readings by Miss Eliza Atkins morning, March 9, and be continued weekly thereafter, will be inaugurated next week, at the home of Mrs. John Stuart, 900 Sheridan road, when Victor Hugo's works will be taken up. On the following Thursday, March 16, the subject, "A Naturalist of Souls" will be discussed in the home of Mrs. Franklyn Rudolph, 745 Sheridan road; Thursday, March 23, Miss Stone will read, "Some Brothers and Sisters," the meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. William B. Hale, 900 Willow street. Other readings, "The Book of Tea," will take place Thursday, March 30, at the home of Mrs. Mancel T. Clark, 760 Bryant avenue, and Thursday, April 6, "King Cole," at the residence of Mrs. Victor Elting, 830 Mt. Pleasant court.

Tickets for the course may be obtained through Mrs. C. T. Mordock, 645 Maple avenue.

A new circle which has been added to the list of circles within the Woman's Association of the Congregational church, and is to be known as the Walden Road Circle, held its organization meeting on Tuesday of this week, at the home of Mrs. Wallace D. Rumsey, at 643 Walden road. There were thirty enthusiastic women present, and plans were made to meet every fourth Monday of the month. The next meeting, on March 27, will be held at the home of Mrs. George F. Gonsalves, 635 Rosewood avenue.

One division of the Prairie club, a scouting party, were visitors in Hubbard Woods last Sunday, before boarding a train for Chicago, after a hike down along the lake shore from Ravinia. Next Sunday they are planning a walk from Ravinia to Fort Sheridan, with a picnic lunch somewhere en route along the beach. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lay, who have recently moved from Austin to Hubbard Woods, were former members of the club, and intend to participate in some of the club hikes this spring and summer.

A meeting of the Drama Study Class of the Winnetka Woman's club will be held at the clubhouse on Monday, March 6, at three o'clock. The afternoon's program will consist of reports and discussions of some of the season's most successful plays, by Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty, Mrs. Lloyd Faxon, Mrs. Jerome Lieber, Mrs. George Frazier, Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler, Mrs. Taliaferro Milton and Mrs. Albert Veeder, Jr.

Mrs. B. Frank Johnson, a member of the Board of Directors of the Urban League of Chicago, and Mrs. Sayer, a colored woman who told of the wondrous work accomplished by the league, were the speakers at the meeting of the Woman's Society of the Congregational church on Wednesday, when the subject under discussion was "Inter-Racial Conditions."

A large group of North Shore folks went down to Evanston last evening to hear Miss Lucine Finch give a model interpretation of the rich and varied characteristics of the old southern mammy, a mixture of humor and pathos, at the Woman's club. The proceeds were devoted to the Vassar College Salary Reduction fund.

A very delightful program was arranged by the Matheon club of Austin for last Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Frederick Dickinson read "Overtones," and Mrs. Norman Copthorne sang a group of songs, with Mrs. George Mason at the piano. Miss Harriet Vittum preceded the program with a short address.

Mrs. Edgar F. Allen, 352 Linden avenue, returned Friday of last week from an extended visit in the south, and was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. F. Sergeant and Miss Juliette Sergeant, who will be her guest for several days.

The Winnetka Branch of the League of Women Voters will hold its next meeting on Tuesday evening, March 14. It is expected that Representative Chindblom will be one of the speakers on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lackner and their two daughters, of 339 Linden avenue, left last evening for Pasadena, Cal., to attend the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. Lackner's parents.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Edith Lundquist, to Mr. Arthur George Reisenberg of Hubbard Woods, on Wednesday, February 22, at three o'clock, at Sacred Heart parish.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Stanton, 672 Blackthorn road, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Edmonds, of 670 Blackthorn road, returned this week from an extended sojourn in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Earl Palmer, 1401 Jonquil terrace, Birchwood, announce the birth of a son, Warren Ayres, on February 23. Mrs. Palmer was formerly Miss Helen Steen.

Mr. Albert Pick, and his daughter, Miss Dorothy Pick, of 445 Sheridan road, left last week to join Mrs. Pick and their son, Lawrence, who have been wintering at Miami, Fla.

Mrs. George Oldfather has been confined to the house by illness during the past week.

Judge Clark T. Northrop, 1144 North avenue, was confined to his home with illness early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman Hay, 645 Sheridan road, will return this week from a stay at the Castle Hot Springs in Arizona.

Miss Michaels, one of the teachers at Horace Mann School, has obtained a month's leave of absence, and left Wednesday for a visit, in Los Angeles, Cal.

The Forty club will hold its next dancing party on Thursday, instead of Friday evening of next week as originally planned.

Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber, 468 Ridge avenue, opened a class in Citizenship at the Highland Park Woman's club Thursday morning of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Schwabacher, 815 Ash street, announce the birth of a daughter, Leslie Josephine, on Saturday, February 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston C. Boyden, 555 Arbor Vitae road, are receiving con-

The Incorporated Bowling club will meet next Monday at the Winnetka Woman's club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Street, 592 Sheridan road, are at Coronado Beach for the balance of the season.
