P. T. Barnum is Hailed as 'Father of Advertising'

Washington — P. T. Barnum, famed for his observation on "suckers," has also been hailed in Congress as the "father of advertising."

During discussion on the U. S. Shipping Board's advertising methods, Congressman Wood, of Indiana, paid tribute to the publicity genius of the circus magnate.

"I think that the newspapers of this country can well afford a monument as high as the Washington monument in memory of P. T. Barnum, who first demonstrated the value of advertising," said Wood. "Barnum was the father of modern advertising."

CHICAGO BOOSTS COMPENSATION

Repudiating the stand against adjusted compensation taken by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, the Chicago Commerce board went on record in support of the bill, following a visit to Chicago of Hanford MacNider, commander of the American Legion.

FITTING REBUKE

"How a man worships his God is his own business," wrote Hanford MacNider, Legion commander, answering a magazine article entitled "Rome Heads the American Legion." Mr. MacNider said religion is of no consideration in Legion membership.

North Shore Soccerites Lose Peel Cup Encounter

The North Shores, crack soccer outfit, comprising players from the various villages and towns in this vicinity, dropped the first round of the Peel Cup series to the fast Canadian club crew Sunday at Foster field, Evanston. The final score was 4 to 0.

The Cannucks started with a rush and in five minutes had two goals, both being headed through.

The North Shore came back strongly and bombarded the Canadian goal, but were kept from scoring. Play in the second half was all in the territory of the North Shores goal.

The North Shores team comprises: Allardyce, Leys, Holland, Denny, Currie, Woods, Brown, Duff, Carroll, Kirkaldy and McNaughton.

I. W. W. THREAT

"It will be blown up!" The police at Centralia, Wash., received this threat against the erection of the American Legion memorial building, to be dedicated to men shot down by alleged I. W. W. members, in 1919.

CHAMPIONSHIP SWIMS

New Trier natators will swim against Hyde Park seniors and Harrison juniors, winners of the Chicago championship, in Lake New Trier Friday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock.
