

STATE CANDIDATES SCORE THOMPSONISM

Assembly Candidates Speak at League Mass Meeting

At a meeting of the Winnetka Branch of the Illinois League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization, eight candidates for election to the Legislature and Assembly Tuesday evening responded to the invitation of the League, to present their respective platforms for the approaching elections of the Seventh Senatorial District.

There were two Democrats: J. J. O'Rourke, present incumbent, of Harvey; and John Webster McCarthy of Lamont; both candidates for the Assembly; There were five Republicans: Howard P. Castle, present incumbent, of Barrington; Peter C. Pickereil of Harvey; Roy Malcom McKerchar of Wilmette; Charles E. Waterman of Thornton, all candidates for the Assembly; and in addition, for the Senate, Wilbur L. Castleman of Maywood. One Independent was present, Lewis B. Springer of Wilmette.

Denounce Thompsonism

All candidates expressing any views on the present administration in Chicago, denounced strongly Thompsonism, with its alleged powerful and disastrous effects on the State and District administrations.

Among the candidates who spoke was a representative making an appeal for the disabled soldiers through the American Legion.

The meeting afforded the public a very excellent opportunity to become acquainted with political candidates, an occasion which every loyal citizen was privileged to employ to great advantage for the best interests of the community.

BRIDGE BUILDING, RADIO AT SCOUTS PUBLIC NIGHT

The Public Evening to be given by the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1, March 23, is intended, primarily, to give parents and friends a chance to understand a little more of the work done by the Scouts. Its purpose is also to raise money which is used during the year for incidental expenses relative to carrying on the work of the troop.

There will be an exhibition of small bridges made by various scouts, and judges will award a prize for the best bridge. There will also be a presentation of first aid kits. Specimens of Boy Scouts' cooking may be sampled. There will be signaling in the dark, a knot tying contest, suggestion of some of the nature work, stunts in first-aid, fire-rescue work, Tenderfoot initiation, and O'Grady Drill-Down. It is also planned to have a large bridge built across an imaginary canyon.

It is expected to have a demonstration in wireless work, showing how it is possible to have musical entertainment given at a distance.

The admission is nominal, the desire being to have as many people interested in the Scout movement as possible.

The exhibition will be held in the gymnasium of Community House, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The Ridge Avenue Circle will be entertained on Monday, March 20, by Mrs. Stanley Clague, 849 Willow street. Mrs. Milton Higgins will be the assisting hostess.

Mrs. James Clipper and Miss Adelaide Clipper of Winnetka have recently arrived in Pasadena, Cal., and are residing at the Hotel Maryland, temporarily.

A number of Winnetka young people are planning to attend the hard times party given by the Merry Makers Club this evening at the school gymnasium in Glencoe.

Evanston Hospital Ass'n Boosts St. Francis Drive

Hope for success of the St. Francis hospital fund campaign to be opened on the north shore Sunday, March 19, was expressed in resolutions adopted Wednesday by the executive committee of the Evanston hospital association. The resolution stated, in effect, that the Executive committee of the Evanston Hospital association by unanimous vote expresses cordial approval of every effort to give adequate and efficient equipment for the care of the sick, and the hope that complete success will attend the St. Francis Hospital Fund campaign. The action of the Evanston Hospital association was made public this week by A. L. Patton, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strodeur of 846 Oak street announce the birth of a daughter, Los, on Wednesday, Mar. 1.

GEORGE ARLISS FILM AT COMMUNITY HOUSE

A treat is in store for patrons of Winnetka Community House, Friday, March 24, when the new George Arliss photoplay, "The Ruling Passion," will be shown.

This star and this picture is doubly welcome to every lover of the photoplay for the reason that Mr. Arliss has won the admiration of every screen critic for his artistry, and in the United Artists release, "The Ruling Passion," he follows a course hitherto uncharted for him.

George Arliss is recognized for his characterizations in which sinister motives and a satirical, cynical, crafty, cruel impersonation come first. In his new picture, Mr. Arliss has the role of a lovable, elderly millionaire and philanthropist, who plunges into the hobby of work while under the doctor's orders to "rest." That he works out the details of a charming love story in which his daughter is involved, is a work of great importance as the story unfolds.

The story of "The Ruling Passion" was taken from Earl Derr Biggers' story, "Idle Hands," in "The Saturday Evening Post," and was arranged for the screen by Forrest Halsey.

The Foxdale Avenue Circle put in an excellent day's work on Tuesday last. Twenty-four infants' night-gowns were made, from cutting to the last draw string. For a practically new Circle this is splendid.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Street of 592 Sheridan road, returned today after a seven week's sojourn in Southern California.

The Best of Husbands Forget --at Times

Your husband forgets now and then just as as all husbands do. How many times have you asked him to bring home from the city some little thing you needed at once. He kept forgetting it and finally you ran out of patience or he ran out of alibis.

Any time you need anything in hardware, kitchen utensils, paints, glass, nails, garden tools, seeds, etc., just call up Taylor's. He never forgets. Your order will be filled promptly and accurately.

People who trade at Taylor's, and most Winnetka people do, say that his prices are, as a rule, lower than those of down-town merchants.

Don't send to the city next time—just phone Taylor's. Winnetka 998 or 999.
