

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES - ITEMS OF PERSONAL MENTION

Politics Replace Social Occasions This Lenten Season

DURING these Lenten days, social activities are practically at a standstill and society is devoting all of its time and energy to politics. Winnetka and north shore women are taking an active interest in the campaign for their own candidate for County Commissioner, and on Wednesday a group of twelve, including Mesdames Heyliger A. de Windt, Ralph Childs, Samuel McCaulley, George F. Gonsalves, Arthur Dean, Eugene Rummel, James Prindiville, Lowell Copeland, Morris L. Greeley, Charles Byron, S. T. Burke and Ralph Snyder went to town to attend the luncheon given under the auspices of the Country Town Republican Ticket at the Morrison hotel. Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, chairman for the Country Towns, and Mrs. Maurice H. Lieber, candidate for County Commissioner, both of Winnetka, were also in attendance.

Of great interest in north shore circles is the marriage of Miss Katherine Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Vaughn Jacobs of Glencoe, to Tom Edwards Hough of Evanston, which will take place Thursday evening, March 30, at 8:30 o'clock in the Church of St. Elizabeth, Glencoe. The Rev. Dr. Samuel N. Watson will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at the Skokie Country club.

Miss Dorothy Day of Winnetka will attend Miss Jacobs as maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Dorothy Bradford and Miss Elizabeth Whipple of Evanston, and her cousins, the Misses Mary and Susan Miller of Winnetka.

Will M. Hough of New York will serve his brother as best man. Whipple Jacobs, the bride's brother, John Coolidge of Winnetka, Charles F. Clarke of Chicago and Charles Stuart of New York will be the ushers.

The young couple will make their home in Evanston.

The Helothi Group of the Winnetka Camp Fire Girls met Friday at the home of the secretary, Amy Macintyre, 822 Humboldt avenue. They were shown by Nurse Garretson, the proper way to bathe a small baby. Baby George Sellers, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sellers, 807 Pine street, was kindly loaned for the occasion. Members of the Helothi Group include Miss Ruth Matz, guardian, Adelaide Barbary, Susan Burlingham, Ellen Lorimer, Louise Lackner, Olga Mangel, Amy Macintyre, Elizabeth Merrill, Leonie Mills, Margaret Newman, Elizabeth Richards, Margaret Ross, Lois Scharf, Margaret Sterrett, Ellen Steware, Ethel Thomas, Peggy Waidner, Judith Walsh, Sallie Winds, Vera May Ogan and Hellen Brown.

An enjoyable affair was held at Community House on Tuesday of this week, when the fifteenth anniversary of the foundation of the Winnetka Branch of the Royal Neighbors of America was celebrated. Following the regular meeting, at which time there were ten new members initiated, the guests, one hundred in all, participated in a game of buncle. Refreshments were served, and the celebration was called a decided success.

A meeting of the Woman's Society of the Congregational church will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest J. Allsebrooke, 747 Lincoln avenue, on Wednesday, March 22, at 2:30 o'clock. The subject of the program is "The Gospel and the Plow in India." The guest of honor will be Mrs. Clarence E. Wolsted, wife of the new minister under appointment to India. The women of the church and congregation are cordially urged to come and meet her. Attention is called to the fact that this meeting is to be held on the regular fourth Wednesday of the month, not on March 29, not as announced on the post-cards.

"Modern Poetry" will be discussed at the meeting of the Winnetka Woman's Club on next Thursday afternoon, which will be conducted under the auspices of the Art and Literature committee. Mrs. Carl Rodin, formerly of the Chicago Public Library will be the speaker. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames Charles N. Ascheim, Warner H. Robinson, Elmer E. Stults and Fritz Wagner, Jr. The nominating committee, of which Mrs. Eloise W. Wortley is chairman, is eager to have suggestions for candidates for any and all offices of the club.

Mrs. Harry Craig entertained the Community Drama Club on Monday afternoon at her home, 592 Provident avenue. Miss Olive Grover of New Trier High school related some of her experiences at the "47 Workshop" of Boston, and demonstrated stage scenery and lighting with her miniature stage. Mrs. Dwight Green read some amusing selections from "The Custard Cup," by Florence Bingham Livingston.

The Women's Gymnasium Class at the Community House is always enjoyable, especially so on Wednesday last. Mr. Clark, the director, instructed in a new Spanish dance, and later two baseball nines were chosen for an interesting game, made more interesting because no one knew very much about the game.

Miss Leila Houghteling, 731 Prospect avenue, left last Saturday to join her mother, Mrs. James L. Houghteling, in Del Monte, Cal. Mrs. and Miss Houghteling will return to Winnetka early in April.
