

COMMUNITY HOUSE CALENDAR

The outstanding activity of the week in Community House is the Public Scout Night of Troop No. 1. This will be held on Thursday Evening, March 23rd. This is an annual event—an evening when fathers and mothers and friends interested are cordially invited. Demonstration of Scout activities, exhibition of Scout work done, Tenderfoot Tests, and Scout ceremonial, as well as trials of skill and accuracy will furnish an evening of interest and enjoyment. Some special features are planned as a surprise. If you wish to become familiar with Boy Scout work, this is an opportunity to do so; if you already know what the organization is doing, it will be of interest to see how well the boys acquit themselves. The meeting will begin at eight o'clock. The admission is nominal.

Family Religion in Bible Is Lenten Service Topic

Rev. Samuel A. B. Mercer, is attracting large audiences to Christ Church, Sheridan Road and Humboldt avenue, during the Lenten season with his Tuesday evening talks on "Bible Religion," in which he is stressing the application of the Bible to modern needs and thought.

Tuesday evening, March 21, Rev. Mercer's address will be related to the subject "Family Religion in the Bible." Rev. Mercer, of the faculty of the Western Theological seminary, Chicago, is an authority on the subject of the Bible. He is the author of several authentic volumes on Bible study and is a forceful and convincing speaker. Augmenting the Lenten talk will be music by a special choir under direction of Ellis E. Chase, Christ church organist and choirmaster. Every resident of Winnetka is invited to these meetings, which begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Enjoy Camp Supper And a Dishwashing Contest

Sixth grade boys of the Hubbard Woods school held a camp supper in the school shops Wednesday. All of the cooking and serving was done by the boys and, to date, no casualties have been reported.

Features of the evening were some experiences related by shop work supervisor Kinney, camper extraordinary, and a dishwashing contest in which James Fleming took first honors.

Charles Elliott Heads Horticulture Society

New officers were formally installed at a recent meeting of the New Trier Horticultural society with Charles Elliott as president; H. A. Shepherd, vice president; Thomas Simpson, secretary and treasurer; Julius Runfeldt, Robert Bray, John Amendola and J. Teom, trustees.

Several discussions took place pertaining to Horticultural subjects. The work of the society was praised by President Elliott and the members encouraged to accomplish even better results in the future.

The society voted to hold its annual Flower Show about July 22. Edward Boulter, a member of the society, will be the speaker at the regular meeting Thursday, April 6. All gardeners in Winnetka and Glencoe are invited to attend this meeting and to enter their names on the society's membership roll.

"Marcus Whitman," Subject of Sunday Lenten Address

Splendid attendance and interest is marking the series of special Lenten Sunday evening services at the Winnetka Congregational church. The addresses by the ministers are on "Great Lives With a Christian Meaning."

Rev. James A. Richards, pastor, has discussed St. Francis and Louis Pasteur. Tomorrow evening Dr. J. W. F. Davies will speak on "Marcus Whitman," Christian Statesman of the Northwest.
