

SEEK 'NEW DEAL' FOR COOK COUNTY'

Winnetka Leaders Endorse
Lieber; State Platform

A moral clean-up of Cook county road houses; promotion of good roads; further development and efficient management of the Forest Preserve; extension of Civil Service to county offices; opposition to the City Hall's influence in county affairs; determination to put a woman on the county board. These comprise, essentially, the campaign platform of the leaders endorsing the candidacy of Charles F. Peterson for president of the Cook County board; and Gertrude C. Lieber, James R. Harper, George F. Hand, Michael Schiessle and Howard P. Roe, for county commissioners.

Leaders Endorse Letter

The above definite campaign program is contained in a letter addressed to Winnetka citizens this week by Mrs. Ira Couch Wood, and bearing the endorsement of the following prominent Winnetkans:

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Boyden, Mr. Horace K. Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mehlhope, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ira Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Weisenberg, Mrs. Morris L. Greeley, Mr. Frank L. Maloney, Mrs. Arthur W. Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Longworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snell, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mordock.

The letter contained, as well, a brief but comprehensive record of the histories and civic achievements of the various candidates, and the definite statement that the candidates stand as unalterably opposed to the Lundin-Thompson political faction and definitely committed to the purpose of securing "a new deal in Cook County."

Scouts Show Off Wares At Annual Public Night

Annual Boy Scouts Public Night for Winnetka Scout Troop No. 1 was held at Community House Thursday of this week.

The evening's program included various exhibitions and demonstrations of Scoutcraft including knotting contests, bridge building, signal work and many other interesting features.

A packed auditorium greeted the Scouts. Proceeds were directed into the Troop treasury.

The game was to be staged at the Community House gym. The Horace Mann Orioles and the Country Day Wild Cats met at Community House

What's One to Do When Thomas Feels That Way About It?

Joseph L. Thomas, landscape gardener, was highly flattered Saturday afternoon when a Winnetka police magistrate nicked him to the roundelay of $5 and costs on a charge of propelling his demon flivver at the dizzy pace of 31 miles an hour.

Thomas is still dazed over it all. Last Friday he was "picked up" in a high wind by one of Winnetka's motorcycle terrors and informed that his otherwise pokey machine had actually achieved the previously mentioned excessive rate of speed.

"When do I pay for all this?" Thomas shouted in sheer glee.

"Gee, you're not anxious to pay, are you?" the copper encountered in amazement.

"Anxious to pay?" Thomas queried.

"Well I guess yes. If that bus can make 31 I've a right to pay plenty. It must have been the wind that did it. The old car hasn't keyed up to more than 15 on her own power since so long ago I can't seem to remember."

The motorcycle terror is slowly recovering.

"No pleasure pinchin' a guy like that," he says.

'PENROD' TO ATTRACT LOCAL FILM PATRONS

Every detail of Booth Tarkington's laughable characterization of American boyhood has been faithfully retained for the screen in Marshall Neilan's production "Penrod," which will be shown at Winnetka Community House next Friday evening.

The cast, embodying as it does all the episodes of the stories, is a large one composed mostly of juveniles who are exceptionally adept at their art.

In addition to Freckles Barry who stars in the title role, there will be Herman and Verman, the two darkies who featured in the stories, Rupe Collins, the town's tough guuy, Georgie Bassett, Maurice Levy and Penrod's sister and suitor.

The role of the sister is played by Marjorie Daw who appeared in "The River's End," and "Bob Hampton of Placer."

With Booth Tarkington's book as a foundation Mr. Neilan has taken the various episodes and moulded them into a coherent picture full of comedy situations and indicative of American boyhood. Among the various incidents said to figure prominently in Penrod's screen career are: the formation of the American Boys' Protective Association, the day at the circus, the dancing class, the amateur theatricals known as "The Children's Pageant of the Table Round," and the capture of two notorious bandits by the boys.
