D. A. R. Convention Attracts Local Women; Chicago Is Hostess

A number of prominent north shore women, members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, attended the annual state convention, which opened on Tuesday morning at the LaSalle hotel.

A reception in the rooms of the historical society took place Tuesday afternoon, and in the evening, there was a delightful address by Dr. Albert J. McCartney. Wednesday morning's session included reports of the state committees, and commemoration services in honor of deceased members, were conducted in the afternoon. Wednesday evening there was a reception and banquet at the hotel and Thursday's sessions were devoted to new business and to the election of officers.

Wells college alumnae of Chicago and the suburbs opened a three weeks' campaign to raise their quota of the $1,000,000 endowment fund for their alma mater, with a banquet Wednesday evening at the Chicago Athletic club.

Graduates and former students in Evanston and the north shore who attended the affair included Mrs. George B. Dryden, Mrs. Horace Dawson, Mrs. Walter Pietsch, Mrs. Fenton Kelsey, Mrs. Albert Koch, Mrs. Frank Dakin, Mrs. Wilson Perrine, Mrs. Sidney Ball, Mrs. James Calhoun, Mrs. Carl Greene, Mrs. George Groves, Mrs. W. F. Hopkins, Mrs. Landon Hoyt, jr., Mrs. A. S. Littlefield, Mrs. E. S. Main, Mrs. William D. Mann, Mrs. George McCormick, Mrs. William Pooley, Mrs. T. G. Rockwell, Mrs. W. R. Uhlemann, Mrs. Aubrey Whittemore, Miss Eleanor Lord, Miss Coralie Schaeffer, Miss Miriam Heermans, Miss Marjorie Berbecker, Miss Florence Evans, Miss Grace Griswold, Miss Georgiana Joiner, Miss Edith Little and Miss Ruth Wilkison.

Miss Rose Cox entertained the children's dancing classes with masque parties at the Woman's club. Miss Cox will sail abroad for study and travel, in June, returning in September to resume her classes.

Women of today recognize the fact that school and college life has failed to prepare them for the important profession of motherhood. To meet this need they are gathering in small groups wherever there is a chance to satisfy their hunger for more knowledge concerning their children.

The Home Department of the Evanston Woman's Club, the Department of Northwestern University, and the Child Study club of the Evanston Elementary school has been presenting a series of lectures by Miss Edna Dean

Baker, the last of which took place on Wednesday of this week at the Evanston Woman's club auditorium.

*"Insult not nature with absurd expense,
Nor spoil her simple charms with vain pretense,
Weigh well the subject; be with caution bold;
'refuse of genius, not profuse of gold."*

Here is the best advice that we can give the residents of Evanston who contemplate any sort of landscape work this spring:

Since the planting season is not far off, consider what changes, or designing of new development, you wish to carry out this coming season.

Do this now, because an early decision means ample time for a conscientious study of your problem, and an excellent choice from the nurseries, which is impossible if you delay too long.

By consulting us now you are assured of your planting being in the ground at the proper time, the result of which is a vigorous growth, and a profusion of colorful blossoms the first season.

No charge for consultation.

Everybody seemed delighted with the little Dresses we have been selling at HALF PRICE for Spring House-Cleaning.

This week we will lay out a table-full of cunning Rompers and Creepers, which will also be offered at just HALF the regular prices. "A word to the wise is sufficient!"

This little girl has the right idea!

Dear Kiddie Nook: This morning I woke up and saw everything covered with snow outside. We haven't had much snow this winter, but I wasn't glad to see it now, because I am thinking of Spring, which is supposed to start this week. Most of my winter clothes are getting kind of worn. You know, little girls wear out their clothes pretty fast. So I am anxious to get some nice things for Spring, and hope you will have them ready, whether it snows or not!

Right now is the time to come in and select one of our smart Spring Coats in Polo Cloth of superior quality, wonderful Camel's Hair, and other materials of suitable weight and color for this season. These coats are real bargains, ranging from $6.00 up, and are of the most exclusive styles for young people.

At the same time, you can select a pretty Spring Hat, a stunning Dress, fancy Hose or Socks, Shoes, and ever so many new things to welcome Spring in fitting manner. You can get them all at The Store For Children, where you will always receive
