

PROF. RALPH DENNIS AT THE SUNDAY CLUB

To Give Interpretation of Book, "If Winter Comes"

The program at the Wilmette Sunday Evening Club Sunday, April 9, will consist of an interpretation of that very popular book "If Winter Comes," written by A. S. M. Hutchinson. The reading will be given by Prof. Ralph Dennis, School of Speech of Northwestern university.

Professor Dennis gave this same rendition at the Sunday Afternoon club in Evanston recently, at the First Presbyterian church, which was crowded to the doors. A number of people from Wilmette were in attendance. This book, which was written less than a year ago, has been in such demand as to call for its being reprinted, and until there have been six editions to date. It is a book with a message from every day life.

Arthur Jones, Soloist

The soloist Sunday evening will be Arthur Jones, recently of the London Light Opera company. He will sing "Friend" by Novello Davies, and "The Children's Home," by Dr. Frederick Cowen.

Mrs. Marie Edwards Von Ritter's program of organ music, including several numbers appropriate to the Palm Sunday spirit, will be as follows:

Prelude: The Palms by Wilkes.
Toccato in G, by Dubois.

Offertoire: Berceuse, by MacMillen.
Postlude: March Triumphale, by Archer.

Bring On April Fool's Day Just Any Old Time

Kenilworth property owners thought the village authorities were perpetrating an April Fool's jest last Saturday when they found check's in their mail boxes.

A bit of investigation disclosed the fact that the money represented rebate on a voluntary assessment special last summer. Too much was collected and the village parceled out the surplus.

WOULD LIGHT "BLACK" STRETCH

Kenilworth Village officials are negotiating with the Cook County Board of Commissioners in the effort to have adequate street lighting for Sheridan road along the 600-foot stretch intervening between the Kenilworth and Wilmette limits.
