Post-Lenten Parties to Include May Dance For New Skating Rink

A May Day Dance will be given at the Winnetka Woman's Club on Saturday evening, April 29th, for the benefit of the Winnetka Skating Rink. The following is a list of patronesses:

Mesdames Henry F. Tenney, Frank J. Bersbach, Carroll S. Kendrick, Erskine Wicher, Ernest S. Ballard, William P. Sidley, Norman W. Harris, Hubert E. Howard, L. Harry Waidner, J. Williams Macey, J. M. Dickinson, Jr., Frederick K. Copeland, John R. Montgomery, James Felantress, Miss Ruth Matz.

The committee in charge of the dance consists of the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel H. Blatchford, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Hinton, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Perry D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Walcott, Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby G. Walling, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Jr., Miss Louisa May Greeley, Miss Mary S. King, Mr. S. Bowles King, Mr. J. Roy West.

The versatility of our local players was well demonstrated on Tuesday evening when Booth Tarkington's "Beauty and the Jacobin" was presented before an enthusiastic audience in the gymnasium of Community House. The play deals with events during the French Revolution and thus calls for the projection back to the conditions of a century ago in the delineation of characters and attitudes toward life of that stirring period in the world's history. Very favorable were the comments on the stage setting accomplished with the limited equipment and facilities of Community House. The action was smooth, and reflected great credit upon the director, Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty. As an aristocrat of fallen fortunes, Eloise d'Auville, Mrs. Taliaferro Milton, gave a vivid realism to her part, as did Mrs. Harrison Mettler as the aunt, Madame de Laseyne. Mr. Burton Atwood as the Revolutionist, Valsin, introduced a subtle humor into the part of the persecutor. Mr. Atwood was particularly commanding on his long difficult passages. His guard, Dossonville, played by Mr. Eugene Rummel, was an apt foil for the interplay of revolutionary atmosphere.

The part of the lover, Louise Valny-cherault was taken by Mr. Milton Blair with ease and charm. Charles Rummel was a soldier.

It was the regular monthly meeting of the Community Drama club and those taking part were members of the Community Players as well as the club itself.

Members of the Winnetka Woman's club have received by mail the nominating ticket for the coming year at the club, as prepared by the members of the Nomination Committee, Mrs. Eloise W. Wortley, chairman, Mrs. C. T. Mordock, Mrs. Marc Newman, Mrs. M. L. H. Odea, and Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty. The ticket includes the following nominations: For President, Mrs. Willoughby Walling; First Vice-President, Mrs. Taliaferro Milton; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Wallace W. Chickering; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Henry F. Tenney; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ruth Matz; Treasurer, Mrs. Alfred G. Freeman; Member at Large, Mrs. Dudley K. Otis; Social, Mrs. Stephen A. Foster; Music, Mrs. Roland D. Whitman; Finance, Mrs. George S. Parker.

The annual card party for the benefit of the Winnetka Summer Camp under the direction of Mr. J. W. F. Davies, will be held Wednesday afternoon, April 26, at 2 o'clock, at the Winnetka Woman's club. For those who do not care to play bridge there will be a most interesting reading by Mrs. Lloyd A. Faxon of Winnetka. She will give "Enter Madame" by Gilda Varesi.

The flagstaff penholder, which Secretary Hughes used in signing the treaty, was presented by him to the National Society and it will be preserved in its museum.

The penholder, made of native wood from 28 states and territories, was about sixteen inches long, decorated with miniature flags of 28 nations, including the nine represented at the conference. The wood was collected and fashioned in to the holder by David Fairbanks of Chicago. The gavel, also, accompanied the gift.
