

WHAT WOMEN CAN DO IN COUNTY AFFAIRS

"Clean Them Up Like a House" Says Mrs. Lieber

I asked Mrs. Lieber what a woman could do, as a woman, on the County Board: "What can a mother do in her home? Is the father of the family a good housekeeper? Cook County isn't a tract of land. It's an immense group of human beings, men, women and children. It's a great big family. And it needs mothering.

"We've often heard of the city 'fathers.' It's time that we should hear of a few mothers. Look at the sick people in Cook County. Couldn't a mother on the Board do something for them that a father couldn't, or wouldn't, do?"

Mrs. Lieber is the mother of two children, one teaching in California, the other now in high school. She herself was a teacher up to the time of her marriage. In fact, she is still engaged in that work, having already taught 14 years in the Sunday School. She has had a great deal of experience with teachers and with school administration as secretary of the Winnetka School Board.

Then too she gained valuable knowledge in her years as president of the Winnetka Woman's Club. In fact she is so well versed in the theory and practice of parliamentary law, public speaking, and civics that she conducts classes in those subjects. Her pupils can be found in towns all the way from Chicago to Waukegan.

"I believe thoroughly," she said, "in the application of civil service to all county offices. I can see no other way of getting rid of patronage.

"Taxes? I don't know how they can be reduced, but I do believe it possible to get a dollar's worth of material or labor for every dollar expended. A good housekeeper and mother has to do that, every day of her life.

"The road-houses? Vile! We have laws protecting animals. I'm going to fight tooth and nail for the protection of our girls. I shall also stand firmly for law enforcement. The best law is foolish if not enforced.

"Of course I'm enthusiastic about our beautiful Skokie Valley. It ought all to be in the Forest Preserve.

"I'm sure that the people on the North Shore, as well as everywhere else in Cook County, believe that there's a place on the County Board that can be filled only by a woman.

"Last of all I want to urge every woman voter in Cook County to vote at the primaries on April 11. I'm sure that of the two election days April 11 is more important.

Something in This.

Model Legislator

Couldn't Find Time to Do Much Campaigning Because of Press of Business at Capitol

Carl R. Chindblom

Congressman Carl R. Chindblom, who represents the Tenth Congressional district (including New Trier,) in the National House of Representatives is a candidate for renomination to that office at the April 11 Republican Primaries.

Congressman Chindblom started his campaign only a week ago, having remained in Washington until that time to attend to important legislative matters. He has established an enviable record in the House and is extremely popular with his constituency. He is a tireless worker and has done much for the north shore in his first term at Washington.

HENRY C. W.

LAUBENHEIMER for SHERIFF

Laubenheimer is 49—a Republican since he was old enough to know, and always lined up with clean and capable men. He is a product of the Chicago Public Schools, married and sending three children to the same schools.

He is a Mason and an Elk.

For twenty-five years he has been active in Republican party and civic affairs of the city and county.

Formerly cashier of Rogers Park National Bank. At present a director of the Devon Trust & Savings Bank.

A good solid and substantial fellow—size up his portrait. Yes, he is serious and business-like. He ought to make a good Sheriff. He will if you help.

Give him the office and title
14 years of work as deputy have
