

'A SINGLE MAN,' DRAMA CLUB PLAY

To Be Presented at Community House, April 19

Those who have watched the development of the Community Drama Club of Winnetka will be interested in the announcement of a public performance to be given in the gymnasium of Community House on Wednesday evening, April 19. While not necessarily the most ambitious of the season's undertakings, when we consider the Christmas play and the Drama of Isaiah, the forthcoming four-act comedy, "A Single Man," is one which will challenge the abilities of a considerable group of the club members and its department, "the Community Players." As for this performance an admission is to be charged for the benefit of community drama, it is hoped that an enthusiastic response will reward the players' efforts.

Unusual Interest
Hubert Henry Davis is the author of "A Single Man" and in it he has assembled no end of humorous situations which give play for an interesting variety of characters. Enjoyment of the comedy is not to be dulled by a recital of the plot here. Suffice it to say that the "Single Man" (played by Dr. Davies Lazear) is finally released from his freedom by taking a life partner (Mrs. Harry Craig) but only after narrow escapes from the matrimonial lasoos of various fair ones whom con- triving relatives and friends have chosen as "the one" for this hapless bachelor of forty-three.

Other members of the cast include: Mrs. William T. Wehrstedt, Mrs. John E. Marshall, Mrs. Merritt Lum, Mrs. Burton H. Atwood, Mrs. Harry P. Clarke, Mrs. Davies Lazear, Mrs. Percival Hunter, Mrs. Charles Eastman, and Mr. English Walling.

THE PUBLIC FORUM

To the Editor,

Mrs. Barber interests herself in the candidacy of Congressman Carl Chindbloom.)—Set in Ital bl

We have about arrived at the set day for our political spring cleaning. April 11, as a preliminary date, is most interesting. We will remove some ornamental do-nothings and set up some more-or-less worth-somethings. Many pretty ornaments are bound to get a visualization, later, like a spent rocket, to fall by the wayside at another annual spraying.

The worth-whiles, with dependability as a middle name, will continue to be a joy to the voter who wishes to see the oath-of-office and fidelity-of-service go hand-in-hand.

CARL CHINDBLOOM—a name to conjure with April 11th! Personally, I have never met Congressman Chindbloom but as a constituent it has been necessary for me, a committee chairman, to bespeak his interest in various Revolution. His replies have been in-bills introduced by the National society, Daughters of the American stantaneous, his knowledge concerning the bills correct and his treatment most courteous.

A bill, of interest to Illinois, as well as nationally, is now pending. Its importance is fully known to Congressman Chindbloom and he has given assurance that he will aid its passage. It is now a privilege to be allowed to ask my friends to support his candidacy and return him to his seat in Congress.

Very truly yours,
Victoria Adams Barber.
