Music Committee to Close Year With an Excellent Program

THE last of the series of what have proved to be most enjoyable musical afternoons will be held at the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday afternoon, April 27. The program, in charge of Mrs. Roland D. Whitman, promises to be very interesting. The soloists for the afternoon will be Miss Catherine Wade Smith, violinist; Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey, vocalist, and Miss Comfort Hinderlie, another talented pianist from the studio of Howard Wells. Previous to Miss Hinderlie's coming to Chicago to study with Mr. Wells, she was a member of the celebrated St. Olaf Choir and also devoted some of her time to composition. The following program will be given:

Garden Scene and Waltz from Faust Fantasia—Gounod-Wienawski. On Wings of Song—Mendelssohn-Achorn.

Wiegenlied—Schubert. Obertass Mazurka-Wienawski. Catherine Wade Smith, accompanied by Miss Katherine Gorin.

The Wind and the Lyre—Rogers. Le Serai Rose—Arditi. An Open Secret—Woodman. Mrs. Guy Bailey.

Pastorale and Capriccio—Scarlatti-Tausig.

Ballet Music "Rosamunde"—Schubert-Ganz.

Perpetual Motion—Weber-Ganz. Prelude in G. Minor—Rachmaninoff.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Orwig, 548 Willow street, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Wednesday evening when their daughter, Miss Emily Orwig, became the bride of Mr. Richard Dana Lyman, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Lyman, formerly of Winnetka. The service was read in the presence of only the immediate relatives, by Rev. J. W. F. Davies of the Congregational church, at 7:45 o'clock. The bride, who wore a dainty frock of white canton crepe, was unattended.

The Cherry Street Five Hundred club has been holding an interesting series of parties this season, and the last of a series of ten games took place on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ware, 922 Cherry street. Early in the winter a proposition that the five losers entertain the five winners at the end of the series, was made, and the losers, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Osten, Mr. and Mrs. Ware and Mrs. W. M. Morse, will have to pay their debt at some future date. Then refreshment time came around, just as it always does, Mrs. Ware informed her guests that if they desired anything to eat they would have to hunt for it, meaning that there was a dainty box and bucket full of goodies for each guest hidden in some twelve different places on the main floor of her home. Needless to say, the party was a glorious success, and was pronounced most unique.

It will be impossible to state the exact hour at which the program will begin, as it will follow immediately at the conclusion of the business session following the luncheon. It is safe to say it will not begin until 2:45. It is advisable, therefore, if there are any who are unable to attend the luncheon and business meeting, but desire to see the plays, that they come at that time.

The program follows: "The Simple Life," a comedy by Mrs. Gertrude Kiper; presented by Mr. Carleton W. Washburn and Miss Harriet Nicholls.

Monologues, by Mrs. Laird Bell. "Jack-in-a-Box," a Fantasy by Mrs. Gertrude Kiper with the cast including Phyllis Ogan, Ridgeway Daggy and J. A. Humphreys.

Mrs. Lloyd Steere and Mrs. C. Low are in charge of this work. There is still a large number of prints to be mounted, and as the children cannot have the benefit of the pictures until this work is completed, anyone who is willing to devote an hour or two to help out, will be most welcome.
