'Mixed Marriage' Is Theatre Guild's Latest Production

THE North Shore Theatre Guild is advising those who are planning to attend the Winnetka performances of "Mixed Marriage" on April 27 and 28, to secure their tickets at the Winnetka Pharmacy, after April 20. If members of the Guild have any difficulty about receiving their tickets, they are advised to investigate immediately of Mr. Emory Cobb Andrews, Mr. Stuart Bailey or Mrs. Frederick Dickinson. With a mailing list of more than a thousand, mistakes may occur, which will be gladly rectified if possible.

The schedule for the week beginning April 25, is as follows: Tuesday, April 25, Lake Forest; Wednesday, April 26, Evanston; Thursday and Friday, April 27 and 28, Winnetka; Saturday, April 29, Kenilworth.

"Mixed Marriage" is one of the great plays, and the production promises to be an adequate one. Mr. Eckhart of Kenilworth, plays Mr.

Rainey; Mr. Whitely, who is president of the Evanston Drama club, plays Mrs. Rainey. The lovely part of Nora is most satisfactorily interpreted by Mrs. Preston Boyden of Winnetka. Mr. Ogden Cook of Kenilworth plays Higbie, and George Martin of Wilmette, Tom. The part of patriotic Michael O'Hara is given to Mr. Joseph Gibson of Evanston.

The play is not all comedy, not all tragedy, but it is life, narrow, bigoted, loving, generous—life.

An enthusiastic audience greeted the Community Drama Club Players on Wednesday evening in their offering of the rollicking comedy, "A Single Man." The afternoon tea scene in Act Two was particularly effective. Much credit is due Mrs. Fred Simpson and Mr. Ralph Varney for the excellent setting, particularly so in view of the hampered facilities which the Community House stage affords. The players are to be highly commended for the excellent presentation of their first real comedy ever attempted. Previous to this time, the players have made their appearance in plays of a different type, and as everybody knows, it is a most difficult thing to put over a comedy, so that it really is a comedy. It takes real talent, and just this sort of work was displayed in "The Single Man." Following is the cast of characters: Robin Worthington, Dr. Davies Lazear Henry Worthington. Mr. Charles Eastman Dickie Cottrell. Mr. English Walling Lady Cottrell. Mrs. Burton Atwood Maggie Cottrell. Mrs. John Marshall Miss Heseltine. Mrs. Harry Craig Isabella Worthington. Mrs. Merritt Lum Louise Parker. Mrs. William Wehrstedt Bertha Sims. Mrs. Harry Clark The Housekeeper. Mrs. Percival Hunter The Parlor-maid. Mrs. Davies Lazear.

Music lovers are reserving next Thursday afternoon, April 27, in order that they may attend the last of the series of musicales to be presented by the Music Committee of the Winnetka Woman's club, this year.

This program will be in charge of Mrs. Roland D. Whitman, and the soloists for the afternoon, Miss Catherine Wade Smith, violinist, Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey, vocalist, and Miss Comfort Hinderlie, pianist, are certain to present a most delightful program. Mrs. Bailey needs no introduction at all in our little musical world, as she is a resident of the village and also a member of the club. Mrs. Bailey has appeared on numerous programs all along the shore.

Miss Smith, the violinist, was a soloist with the Civic Orchestra last winter and plays delightfully, and Miss Hinderlie, a student of Howard Wells, was formerly a member of the celebrated St. Olaf Choir, and has devoted some time to composition.

The club season closed on Thursday, and outside of this one musicale, activities in all other departments have been discontinued until next fall.

The MacDowell Musical Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Guy S. Bailey, on Ash street on Monday afternoon, April 10. "Modern Scandinavian Music" was the subject of the day and Miss Frances Von Hofsten, a visiting guest, read a very delightful paper on personal experiences and customs in Sweden. Mrs. Burton Atwood gave an interesting talk and the following numbers were given by the members of the club, kindly assisted by Mrs. Everett Harris, Mrs. Simpson and Mr. Harvey Clemens: Eroticon, No. 1—Emil Sjorgren. Eroticon, No. 2—Emil Sjorgren. Mrs. Everett Harris.

Folk Song—Vermeland Thou Lovely. The Bird Song—Folk Song. Autumn—Palmgren. Kid's Dance—Grieg. Mrs. Orval Simpson. Serenade—3 Movements—Sinding. Mrs. Kingery, Mr. Clemens. By the Kiln—Palmgren. In the Seraglios Garden—Sjorgren. Sylvelin—Sinding. When I Was Seventeen—Folk Song. Mrs. Awa Cooley. Mrs. Ewart was the accompanist of the afternoon. A delightful social hour followed the program.

Mme Geraldine Farrar will open the 1922 North Shore Musical Festival, to be held at Northwestern University, on May 24, 25, 26, 27, 29 and 30. There will be six concerts, five in the evening and one matinee. The first concert will be known as First Artist's Night, and will consist of a miscellaneous program of songs and orchestral numbers by Miss Geraldine Farrar, the celebrated and sensational soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, and the Chicago Symphony orchestra, with Frederick Stock, conductor.

The second concert, on May 25, at 8:15 p. m. will be a performance of two brilliant choral works, "Swan and Skylark" by Goring Thomas, and Rossini's "Stabat Mater." The soloists will be Luella Meluis, soprano, Mina Hager, contralto, Theo Karle, tenor and John Barclay, bass. There will also be a festival chorus of 600 singers.

The Second Artist's Night, will occur on Friday evening, May 26, and will consist of a miscellaneous program of arias, songs and duets, by Mme Claire Dux, soprano of the Chicago Opera and Guiseppa Danise, leading baritone of the Metropolitan Opera. Both Mme Dux and Mr. Danise will make two appearances on the program and to close the evening they will sing the lovely duet from the "Masked Ball." The Fourth Concert on Saturday, May 27, will be a Young People's Matinee, a miscellaneous program of children's songs and the cantata, "Walrus and the Carpenter," by the chorus of 1500 children will be given. Miss Irene Pavlowski, soprano of the Chicago Opera, will sing some arias and songs.

The Fifth Concert on May 29, will be a performance of Elgar's beautiful operatic choral work, "Caractacus," with Anna Fittzu, Paul Althouse, Arthur Middleton and Herbert Gould as soloists.

The concluding program will be a miscellaneous program of arias by Mme Margaret Matzenauer, orchestral numbers by the Chicago Symphony orchestra, and choruses by the Festival Chorus of 600 singers.

W. L. Ware, 922 Cherry street, Trade Commissioner of the Chicago Association of Commerce, left Sunday noon on the Broadway Limited for Washington, D. C., where he will represent Chicago in the Senate hearing on the Merchant Marine Bill. Mr. Ware will also be the representative at the hearing for the World Trade Club of Chicago. On his return trip he will visit Baltimore, Rochester and Detroit on business for the Chicago Association of Commerce.

The Winter season in Southern California has blended into that of a delightful Spring almost without appreciable diminution in the number of visitors, or their interest in social activities and outdoor sports. The large hotels were filled with guests and few of the homes of Winter visitors will be closed for some weeks to come. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Beach of 532 Oak street, are among the guests recently arriving at the Hotel Maryland, Pasadena.
