Well Beloved Tale of Adventure Is Feature of Benefit Movie Show

"TREASURE ISLAND" with Shirley Mason in the leading part will be the "feature" of the moving picture show to be given by the Kappa Alpha Thetas of Evanston in the Hoyburn theater Friday afternoon and evening, April 28. Additional "attractions" will be a Harold Lloyd comedy and a reel showing a number of dances by little Charlotte Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos S. Andrews of Evanston, taken when the little girl was nine years old. Miss Helen Hedges and Miss Frances Hunter, members of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority at Northwestern university, will give vocal solos at the four performances which will take place at 2, 4, 7 and 9 o'clock.

Hand-made posters advertising the benefit show are on display about the city. They are the work of children in the art courses in the public schools of Evanston.

Miss Lavinia Ferra of Chicago is general chairman of arrangements for the program. Miss Pauline Ferra is in charge of the sale of tickets. Mrs. Duncan Welty, will arrange for the sale of candy during the afternoon and evening, and Mrs. Ernest E. Anderson, manages the publicity. The proceeds will go to swell the building fund of the Northwestern university chapter of the sorority.

The executive board of the New America Shop will meet Monday, April 24, in Room 921, Fine Arts building, Chicago.

The annual convention of the Illinois Council of the Parent Teacher Association will be held at the Hotel Sherman on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, April 25, 26 and 27. An interesting program has been arranged for each session and shoppers will be afforded an excellent opportunity by dropping in at the hotel at any time. Any further information regarding the program may be obtained through Mrs. Karl D. King, 914 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette.

SPRINGER APPRECIATES SUPPORT AT THE POLLS

Lewis B. Springer of Wilmette, who, with Howard P. Castle, was the choice of the Seventh district voters for Republican nominee for representative in the Illinois General Assembly, has expressed a desire to publicly thank the voters of New Trier township for the splendid support accorded him in the recent Primary election.

Springer received second high vote in the district among nine candidates, the final figures appearing as follows: Castle, 13,291; Pickrel, 5,987; Gorke, 7,227½; Kowalski, 1,873; McKerchar, 3,532½; Waters, 8,107½; Culp, 1,537; Ellis, 1,437; Springer, 10,714½.

The letter, addressed to the electorate of New Trier township, reads:

I greatly appreciate the splendid support you gave me for Representative for the next General Assembly, on last Tuesday, April 11, and I want to thank you most heartily for the interest you took in the Primary Election in my behalf.

Sincerely yours,
Lewis B. Springer.

HER DREAM COMES TRUE

Sweet little Nell
Fast asleep fell,
Dreaming of beautiful clothes.
Oh! What delight,
Each thrilling sight
Luring enchanted repose.

When she awoke—
Eagerly spoke,
"Where is the land of my dreams?"
Then Mother said,
"Make up your bed—
Kiddie Nook, that's what you mean!"

Dear Kiddie Nook:

Just a few lines, to tell you how becoming the spring coat which you sent me to try on. Everybody says it looks gorgeous, just as if it were made for me. We had a coat sent out from downtown also, but it didn't compare with your coat, either in price or quality. This isn't the first time we have had such an object lesson, and I guess we shall remember hereafter that you have the choice of all the pretty things in the world for children, and your prices are so fair that our Daddy always says, "Well, there's one bill I don't mind paying promptly."

What chilly weather we are having today! But who cares, so long as we have a smart Spring Coat, a cozy Sweater, or anything needed for comfort and taste in out-of-door apparel these days. By the way, we just had a dandy assortment of Knickerdandy made up for girls, unusual qualities of Khaki, Corduroy, Tweeds, and the like, at $2.75 up. Come while your size is available. At the same time, select your Middy Blouses and Suits. This is going to be a great year for sport wear. Camp-Fire Girls and Scouts will find us well prepared for their needs.

As for the boys, our attention has been equally devoted to their interests, and their department has been much enlarged, according to the encouragement received. Our new clothes for the boys are just the kind they like, jaunty and up-to-date, as well as comfortable. Knickers in washable Flannel, Khaki, Corduroy, and Tweeds, may be had at $1.25 up.

C'mon over, boys and girls. "Run like everything!"
