'An Afternoon of Dancing' Today

A group of our little sub-debs, those who haven't as yet come to the age where they must travel off to school in various parts of the country, for further education, are participating in a delightful little program this afternoon at the Winnetka Woman's club to be known as "An Afternoon of Dancing." They are the pupils of Miss Alicia Pratt, who have been busy all year long studying the terpsichorean arts. Miss Pratt has discovered some real little artists in her classes; for instance, there's Hazel Cooley, Phillis Ogan and Jeanette Master, who are to appear in a trio, "Temple Bells," and Virginia Mac Leish, who will dance the time-old "Pipes o' Pan." Following will be the order of the program: "The Art of Dancing"—Helen Smith. "Kate Greenaway May Party"—Marjorie McNie, Janice Barr, Virginia Peffer, Mary Newhall, Alice Jarrett, Martha Eitzbach. "Top o' the Morn'"—Rosalie Roach, Jane Ashman, Betty Horsman, Helen Butterfield. "A Rustic Dance"—Virginia Mac Leish, Marjorie Janney. "Narcissus"—Betty Hutchinson. "Fairies"—Doris Benson, Jane Ewart, Jeane Whitaker, Frances Whitman, Esther Kriebel, Peggy Brooks. "Chinese Joy"—Jane Yonker, Rosalie Roach. "Pomponnette," Louis XV Dance—Joyce Whitman, Marjorie Janney, Helen Yonker, Carol Whitman. "Columbine"—Helen Smith. "Italian Street Dance"—Hazel Cooley, Katherine Roach, Ruth Hamburger, Jeanette Masten. "Dixie"—Carol Whitman, Virginia MacLeish. "Dawn"—And presently the sun rose in a splendor of crimson and gold—Mary Ingram, Jean Whitaker, Lucy Trumbull, Mary Newhall, Esther Kriebel, Betty Kaulbach, Martha Eitzbach, Jane Yonker, Sun, Alice Jarrett. "Temple Bells"—Hazel Cooley, Phillis Ogan, Jeanette Master. "Dance of the Debutantes"—Virginia MacLeish, Marjorie Janney. "A Vision of Long Ago"—Sally Kriebel, Mara Lee Benoist. "Spring in an Old-Fashioned Garden"—Betty Hutchinson, Jane Yonker, Betty Kaulbach, Helen Smith. "Pipes o' Pan"—Virginia MacLeish.

The marriage of Miss Frances Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ickes of Hubbard Woods, to Mr. ReQua Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry ReQua Bryant of the Shore Crest, took place at four o'clock last Saturday afternoon in Christ Church. The wedding service was read by Bishop Herman Page, assisted by Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard. Mrs. Cochran Supplee, sister of the bridegroom, was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Edmund Hastings, and Miss Kathryn Greene Master Raymond Ickes, brother of the bride, was the ringbearer. Mr. Cochran Supplee was best man for Mr. Bryant. The ushers were Messrs. Wilmarth Ickes, John Q. Magie, Charles Buell and Oscar Turner. The bridal gown was of white kitten's ear crepe, made with a court train of the same material, and heavily embroidered. The bridal bouquet was of white sweet peas, lilies of the valley and white orchids. The maid of honor wore a gown of peach colored taffeta with a large blue haircloth hat, and carried a bouquet of pink snap dragons with a shower of blue lupin. The bridesmaids also wore peach colored taffeta, with large hats of brown horsehair, and carried pink snapdragons, blue lupins, jonquils and daisies. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ickes. Mr. Bryant and his bride will live at 1003 Maple avenue, Evanston.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the work of the Young Woman's Christian Association, to attend "movies" of the work done by the organization in Chicago during the past year, which are to be exhibited at the Indian Hill club next Tuesday evening. A number of north shore women are intensely interested in the success of this project and in view of the drive for the Y. W. C. A. which opens here on the fifteenth of next month, Mrs. James W. Lindville, who is general chairman of the entire north shore, had her town chairman, Mrs. John W. Scott and Mrs. Norman Harris in Winnetka, Miss Dorothy Orde in

Through the courtesy of Mr. J. W. Davies, Director, you are invited to the Community House at Winnetka on Wednesday evening, May 3, at 8 o'clock.
Dr. R. P. Shepherd, of the Society for Visual Education, will give an illustrated Motion Picture lecture showing the community plans and educational work of that society.
The fact that Winnetka is a community of national prominence and is looked to for leadership throughout the country in all that pertains to active community work makes this meeting of quite unusual importance.
The wives are, of course, included in the invitation. The leadership of women in all educational affairs is unquestionable.
