Serbian Children Grateful For Help

"I heard, dear Madam, that you are interested (in your country and in your school) in the Serbian children. I send you our thanks and I assure you we will not forget your kindness and that we will be grateful always for your thoughtfulness of Serbia which suffered very much during the occupation—the schools, the culture and all that have been destroyed. "Be assured of my most grateful thanks, "GRETEN DINITCH."

It is interesting to note incidentally, that the letter was correctly trans-lated by Maxine Sallinger, a seventh grade pupil, in a French class test.
