

Proposed Residence Project

Wharton Clay, author of a communication in "The Public Forum" column in this issue of the Winnetka Talk, has submitted the above water color reproduction as indicating the appearance of a proposed residence group to be located between Sheridan road and Lake Michigan at Willig street.

Hill Road to Have New $35,000 Residence Soon

A. C. Sullivan headed the list of applicants for permits at the offices of the Winnetka building inspector this week, with the information that he is soon to begin construction on a $35,000 residence at 830 Hill road. Other building permits issued this week included: $11,000 residence for Mrs. Victor L. Cunnynham at 712 Lincoln avenue; $1,000 garage for Gustav Lindahl at 898 Burr avenue; $385 garage for Mrs. McCouchan at 1376 Scott avenue; $100 garage for Margaret Phillips at 234 Sheridan road.

Call Trap Shooting Fans to Join Growing Gun Club

North Shore Trap shooting enthusiasts are afforded the chance they may have been waiting for lo, these many months, namely, to get together in some real competitive "gun play" right here on the shore. The answer to their silent supplications is the newly organized North Shore Gun club, the membership roster of which is open to citizens of Wilmette, Kenilworth and Winnetka.

Local Firm Negotiates Big Sales of Valuable Property

Important real estate transfers effected recently through Palmer and Wisdom, north shore realty brokers, included the J. Allen Haines home at 848 Prespect avenue. The Haines house and gardens, noted in architectural circles as a place of true Colonial beauty and simplicity, was sold for an indicated $50,000. Another Palmer and Wisdom transfer was the Robert H. Ripley home at 848 North avenue which is said to have brought $40,000.

N. T. C. A. MEETING

Glencoe Child Model For Albright's Prize Statue

Little Dick Wernecke, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wernecke, Glencoe residents, has been chosen by Melvin Albright, youthful sculptor who resides on Scott avenue, as the model for the child figure in his statue "Motherhood" now being done in the contest which will eventually place a work of that title at the entrance to the Health Sanitarium at Lincoln Park, Chicago. Mr. Albright, son of the famous painter, won first place in the preliminary contest among fifteen competitors. He is one of three now vying for the prize of $1,000 for the work to be selected.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Clark of Evanston, announce the birth of a son, Wendell Harris, Jr., on April 26.
